'Only Faith Has Kept Us Going In A Living Nightmare'—

Cure Sought For Lisco Tot, Victim of Tragic Disease

LISCO, Neb. (AP)—A rare disease very much like hemophilia will send a 14-month-old Lisco girl to Chicago Feb. 6 in the hope of a cure.

She is Peggy Lea Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Davis, who suffers from idiopathic capillary purpura. The disease manifests itself by internal and external bleeding which is caused by the breakdown of small veins.

The tot's 5-year-old brother, Joe, suffers from the same ailment. Another daughter of the Davises died from the disease in August, 1953, at the age of 17 months.

The tragedy of the disease is explained in the prefix "idiopathic" which means that the best medical minds in the nation have been unable to find out anything about it or its causes. The only clue is that it might be hereditary.

Only about 15 known cases exist in the United States.

It differs from hemophilia in that the cause of the bleeding is the weakness of the capillaries and doesn't necessarily require a bump or cut to start bleeding. Blood transfusions of neighbors have kept the two Davis children alive. Peggy has received 18 and Joe 50. Mrs. Davis keeps a list of contributors in Garden County to provide the blood in case of emergency.

Although they bleed frequently, there is no predicting when bleeding will start. The children have gone for months without bleeding.

Various medications have been tried. All have failed. The only help for the tots are blood transfusions.

The blood has to be less than 24 hours old. Plasma or stored blood will not serve since the platelet content, important in stopping the bleeding, apparently diminishes in stored blood.

"People have been perfectly wonderful," Mrs. Davis said. "It shows that it isn't true that people want to know what's in it for them."

"The only thing which has kept us going all this time is faith," she said. "It's the only thing which has kept us going through this living nightmare."

Despite their handicap, both children are active and otherwise completely healthy. Joe, who is described by his mother as "good as gold," attends kindergarten at Lisco grade school.

Mrs. Davis will fly with Peggy Lea to the Chicago Presbyterian hospital for a series of tests devised by doctors there. However, nothing has been promised her in the way of results.

She will be flown to Chicago in the private plane of Dr. Francis Besley of Lewellen, the physician who has attended the children since the start of the disease.

—U.S. Senate— Signal Of War Feared

Ike Defense Plan Draws Hot Criticism

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's fight-if-we-must defense plan for Formosa drew a heavy vote of endorsement Wednesday from two key Senate committees—and hot criticism that it signals "preventive war."

In the first rumblings of a momentous Senate debate, Eisenhower supporters jumped up to declare the only purpose of the policy is peace, through a show of strength to discourage Red Chinese aggression.

By a 27-2 vote, the Senate Armed Services and Foreign Relations Committees approved a resolution to empower the President to use American men and weapons to keep Formosa, the Pescadores Islands and "related positions and territories" out of Communist hands.

But in committee and on the Senate floor, a small but hard-hitting band of senators began a fight. They centered their fire on the "related positions" phrase and its implied authority to attack Red invasion forces on the Chinese mainland and to defend small islands strung along the Chinese coast.

No Vote
"Put in plain English," said Sen. Flanders (R-Vt.), "this is preventive war."

He told the Senate he would vote against the resolution—the show-down may not come before the end of the week or later—although he voted in committee to send it to the floor.

Sen. Morse (Ind-Ore) likewise took a stand that the resolution permits preventive war and expands the possibility of conflict. He encountered an immediate challenge from Republican Leader Knowland of California.

Over and over, Knowland declared the resolution doesn't involve "one iota of desire or intent" of preventive war against Red China or any other nation.

Its only purpose, Knowland said, is peace. Three other Republicans, Sens. H. Alexander Smith (N.J.), Thye (Minn.) and Saltonstall (Mass.) backed him up on that.

No Choice
As the debate rolled along: The only woman senator, Margaret Chase Smith (R-Maine), told her colleagues:

"There is no choice, the circumstances do not permit us the liberty to differ with the President on his resolution."

Sen. Long (D-La.) cried out that Chinese Nationalist leader Chiang Kai-shek wants to plunge the United States into all-out war with Red China.

But Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) said he believes "the policy of firmness embodied in the pending resolution is far more likely to prevent war in the Pacific than a vague policy of waiting for the dust to settle."

Northern Natural Gas Request Favored After Changes Made

By ARCH DONOVAN
Star Staff Writer

A resolution in which the Legislature gave its "full support and endorsement" to the application of the Northern Natural Gas Co. for additional gas was given a public hearing Wednesday. The request is now being heard by the Federal Power Commission.

The introducer, Sen. William Metzger of Cedar Creek, immediately offered amendments which caused witnesses who appeared to oppose the resolution to speak in its behalf.

Purpose of the resolution was to get 12 million cubic feet of "firm" gas supply for Allied Chemical & Dye Corp. for its LaPlatte fertilizer plant.

Frank Fogarty, president of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce said an increase in gas supply for the plant was "important to the state and should be made available." He said that if assured of gas the company would double its present capacity.

If adequate gas is not made available, he said, the company will do its expanding in some other state where gas is available. He estimated the company brings $50 million to the state by increased production due to cheaper fertilizer and in wages paid employees.

In addition to fertilizer, he said the plant makes protein for livestock feeds and that it can be expanded into plastics and military supplies.

Mayor Clark Jeary of Lincoln explained that the resolution was too broad in its endorsement until the amendments were offered. He said that the power commission is studying eight applications from Northern Natural of which the Allied gas request is only one.

"We welcome expansion of Allied because they are good for the state," Jeary asserted.

However, he expressed opposition to the other seven applications they have made.

FRED A. SEATON

Seaton Is Picked As Aid To Ike

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower Wednesday plucked former Sen. Fred A. Seaton of Nebraska from the Defense Department to be an administrative assistant to him. Seaton has been assistant Secretary of Defense.

The President's action was part of a realignment of White House aids made in connection with the resignation of Thomas E. Stephens, his appointment secretary.

Bernard M. Stanley, now special counsel to the Chief Executive, will succeed Stephens as appointment secretary.

Gerald D. Morgan, now an administrative assistant, will become special counsel succeeding Stanley.

Seaton will succeed Morgan as administrative assistant specializing in liaison with Congress.

Seaton served by appointment in the Senate following the death of Sen. Kenneth Wherry. He was active in Eisenhower's campaign for nomination and election, and later headed the Defense Department's legislative liaison and public relations section before being named assistant secretary of defense.

Seaton in private life is publisher of the Hastings Tribune and directs a group of newspapers and radio stations.

—Target Found— 8 Men Saved At Sea

Ship, Plane Win A Rendezvous Crash Race

NEW YORK (AP)—In a delicately tricky maneuver, a crippled four-engine military plane covered hundreds of miles of stormy mid-Atlantic Wednesday, then ditched beside a Coast Guard cutter. All eight persons aboard the plane were picked up safely.

For an agonizing two hours and 21 minutes, the plane groped through storm and gathering dusk toward the Coast Guard cutter Coos Bay, a tiny speck on the vast, turbulent sea.

Then, minutes before nightfall, the plane found its target. The pilot brought his craft down expertly on the heaving, gale-swept sea. Lifeboats plowed to its side and the survivors were whisked to safety.

Radio was the thin thread that brought the plane and the cutter together in a life-saving rendezvous far from land.

Lost Gas

The Coast Guard here said the plane, bound from the Azores to Bermuda, apparently accidentally lost 350 gallons of gasoline. Short of fuel and 1,000 miles east of Bermuda, there was no hope of making land.

At 2:37 p.m. EST, the pilot radioed the U. S. Air Force base at Bermuda, said he was bucking vicious headwinds and despaired of reaching land.

The Coast Guard cutter immediately changed course, meanwhile guiding the pilot in its direction by radio.

The Coast Guard here was informed that the plane had ditched within 2 1/2 miles of the Coos Bay at 4:58 p.m. EST.

A Coast Guard spokesman reported the C-54 transport came within an eyelash of losing its race. He said it was almost dark when the plane came down. Total darkness, he explained, would have made a rescue all but impossible in such heavy seas.

40-Knot Wind

Waves were reported as high as 13 feet, the wind at 40 knots. Rain further reduced visibility.

The plane was operated by the Military Air Transport Service, an agency of the combined military services.

The Coos Bay was on mid-ocean weather patrol. Its skipper is Cmdr. William S. Vaughan.

A list of men aboard the plane revealed no Nebraskans.

Washington officials said the plane was from the 23rd Air Transport Squadron of the Charleston Air Force Base.

18th Fighter-Bomber Wing Is Redeployed

Speed From Philippines, Okinawa

TOKYO (Thursday)

(AP)—American F86 Sabrejets, scourge of Communist air power during the Korean War, landed on Formosa today to provide "air power at any place needed," the Far East Air Forces announced.

Gen. Earle E. Partridge, FEAF commander, said Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson had ordered the 18th Fighter-Bomber Wing from the Philippines and Okinawa "to temporary duty bases on Formosa."

The first planes landed today and the remainder will be in place shortly," Partridge said.

A U.S. fighter wing has up to 75 planes but does not always fly that many in combat.

"Other FE AF offensive units are being re-deployed to forward bases," Partridge said. He called the transfer "a move that exemplifies the global capability of U. S. Air Force units to move at jet speeds to any trouble spot."

This apparently meant that long range jet bombers such as the B47s under the Strategic Air Command at Guam were being transferred closer to the troubled Formosan area, possibly to Okinawa, The Philippines or Japan.

High Tension

The transfer of a Sabrejet wing to Formosa comes at a time of high tension with Communist China over the status of offshore islands now occupied by Nationalist China.

The Sabrejets were the scourge of Communist MIG15 jets during the Korean War and racked up an overwhelming score in combat.

The Sabrejets on Formosa will be in position to aid powerful surface and air units of the U. S. 7th Fleet in defense of that Nationalist stronghold, the Pescadores, and whichever of the offshore islands the United States may consider vital to the Formosa mission.

Nationalists Attack

TAIPEH, Formosa (Thursday)—Chinese Nationalist four-engine bombers renewed their attacks on Communist Yikiangshan Island Wednesday night and early today with excellent results, official reports said.

Press reports said the U.S. 7th Fleet, which has massed a powerful air-sea armada in the Formosa area, staged "show of strength" maneuvers yesterday north of Formosa in the general area of the invasion-menaced Tachen Islands.

News reports said 300 U.S. planes streaked through the skies north of Formosa.

Ready To Evacuate

The reports came as the Nationalists were deciding whether to pull out of the Tachen Islands 200 miles north of Formosa. Plans for the evacuation, under protection of U.S. sea and air units, were believed completed and only awaited the Nationalist policy decision.

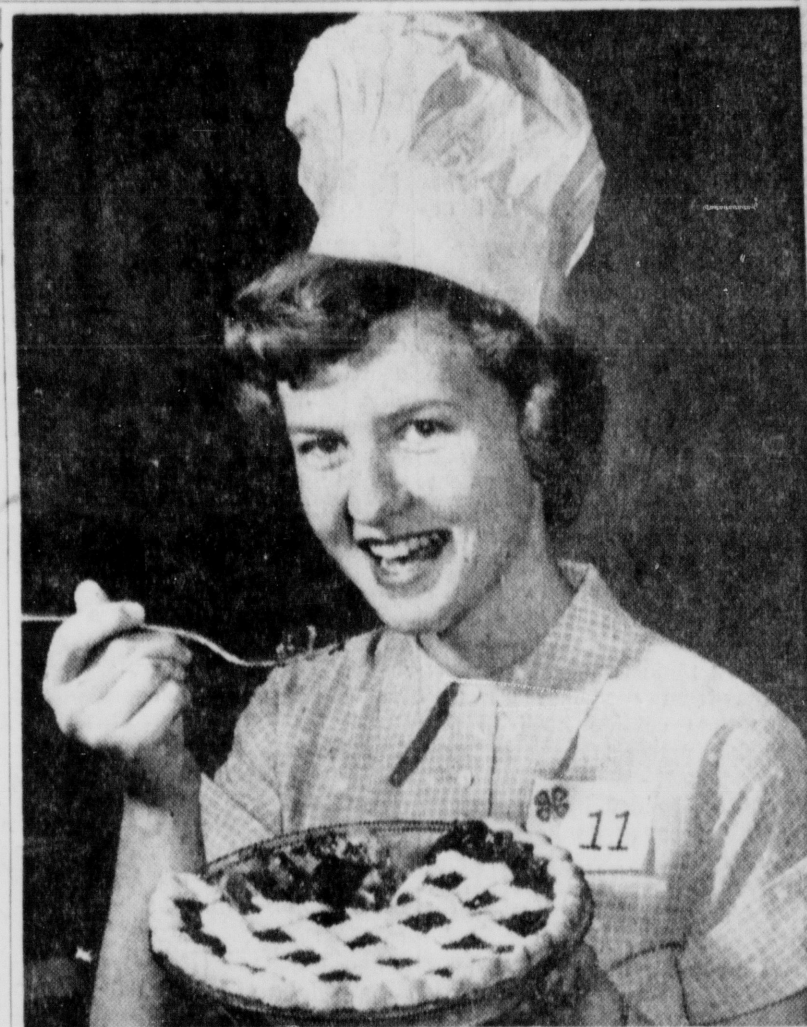

The pre-dawn Nationalist raid on Yikiangshan, eight miles north of the Tachens, was made through intense anti-aircraft fire, the reports said. Communist warplanes failed to challenge the bombers and all returned to Formosa, the reports added.

The nightly raids on Yikiangshan, captured by the Reds last week after a sizable amphibious invasion and heavy fighting, apparently were aimed to suppress Communist guns which could harass an evacuation of the Tachens.

Ike Invited

WASHINGTON (INS)—Rep. John V. Beamer (R-Ind.), announced President Eisenhower has been invited to speak again to the National Plowing Contest.

Beamer said he wrote the President at the request of the contest program chairman, Arden Strauss of North Manchester, Ind. This year's event is to be held in September in Wabash County, Ind., which is in Beamer's district.

Rising City 4-H'er's Cherry Pie Wins Way To Chicago Pie-Bake

Elaine Hinze, 4-H'er from Rising City was named state winner of the State Cherry Pie Baking Contest held at the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture Wednesday. She won over 28 other 4-H'ers who were champions in their county contests.

She will compete for national honors Feb. 18 at Chicago. Should Elaine win the national contest, she will be flown to Washington D. C. to present her pie to President Eisenhower.

Each of the girls were scored on their method of preparation, quality of pie, filling and personal qualifications. The arrangement of ingredients and equipment, sequence of work, techniques used, and manual skill and completeness of recipe were worth 150 points.

Miss Hinze, Butler County entry and 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Werner Hinze, baked more than 20 pies and changed her basic recipe several times in preparing for the state contest. This was the first time she had entered either a county or a state contest.

Second place winner in the contest was Melba Dobrovolsky, Holt County entry and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Dobrovolsky, O'Neill, with third place going to Rose Wiggins, Morrill County entry and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Wiggins, Broadwater.

MacArthur Rejects 'Preparedness' Idea

Old Soldier Asks Abolishment Of War

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Gen. of the Army Douglas MacArthur Wednesday night urged this nation to "now proclaim our readiness to abolish war in concert with the great powers of the world."

"The result would be magical," he declared.

The old warrior rejected preparedness as a sure path to peace, or collective security as a steadfast bulwark of the free world.

Abolition of war, as he sees it, need not even rest on international inspection of armaments. Public opinion and the great gains enjoyed by a world of peace would ensure it, in his opinion.

The alternative, he warned, is a preparedness race that may plunge the world into nuclear warfare by "spontaneous combustion."

Far East

MacArthur's denunciation of war came in a speech at a civic banquet that followed dedication here for a monument in his honor. He came to the West Coast for public ceremonies marking his 75th birthday anniversary.

MacArthur touched only briefly on the Far Eastern situation. He made no more than passing comment on the Korean War's limited scope, which he so strongly opposed.

Instead, he devoted his more than 3,000 word address to the suicidal nature of modern nuclear warfare. In terms seldom employed by a military hero, MacArthur demanded not just a ceasefire, but an absolute end to war itself.

MacArthur conceded he would be sneered at as a visionary by "every pundit in the world, every cynic and hypocrite, every paid brainwasher, every egotist, every troublemaker, and many others of entirely different mold."

New Era

But he insisted: "Sooner or later the world, if it is to survive, must reach this decision. The only question is when? Must we fight again before we learn? When will some great figure in power have sufficient imagination and moral courage to translate this universal wish—which is rapidly becoming a universal necessity—into actuality?"

"We are in a new era. The old methods and solutions no longer suffice. We must have new thoughts, new ideas, new concepts, just as did our venerated forefathers when they faced a new world."

Business Experts View '55 With Caution

Current Recovery Is Strong

Home Building Will Have Big Influence

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Business analysts told Congress Wednesday the nation's economy is undergoing a vigorous recovery but posed some question as to whether current activity is strongly enough rooted to eliminate fears for the future.

Home construction, now booming, will exert important influence on employment and production, they said.

Several noted that significant ups and downs are still possible in an economy admittedly better insulated than 20 years ago.

Reflecting this, a government official said that although the job outlook is good, some 3,800,000 may be out of work next month because of changing seasonal demands.

Ike's Report Analyzed

A succession of witnesses viewed the year ahead with caution as hearings opened on President Eisenhower's economic report to Congress.

Eisenhower last week pictured recovery as "well under way" and foresaw a high level of employment for 1955. He estimated current national production at about 360 billion dollars a year and said that, wisely managed, it could reach 500 billions by 1955.

The President also declared government's main task was to "foster long-term economic growth" rather than confine itself to the immediate present.

The Senate-House Economic Committee, headed by Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.), began its hearings as the Commerce Department and Federal Reserve Board reported a notable improvement in business at the end of 1954.

But Leon Keyserling, chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers under President Truman and now an economic consultant, told the committee 1954 was a year "in which we fell dismally short of maximum employment and maximum production."

He said he was even "less optimistic" for 1955 from the standpoint of maintaining employment.

William F. Butler, consulting economist for the Chase National Bank, offered a tentative estimate that national output would rise to a rate of about 376½ billion dollars by the end of 1955. Keyserling countered that the figure should be 390 billions to attain full employment and production. And Calvin B. Hoover, Duke University economics professor, said the "peak level of 1953 would not be an acceptable goal for 1955."

Considering the decline in defense spending, Butler said, "the truly remarkable fact is that the 1953-54 recession was one of the mildest on record."

Emotional Problem, Heavy Insurance Scored As Major Cause Of Accidents

Emotional problems were pointed out Wednesday as a major cause of accidents by the safety and courtesy director of the Union Pacific Railroad in Omaha.

The director, Francis B. Lewis, of Omaha, reported to the annual meeting of the Lincoln-Lancaster Safety Council, stating that during periods of war or national crisis — such as today — people become emotionally unstable.

He said that in such a state people are more prone to accidents. Lewis said that safety, a factor his railroad considers of first importance, is sometimes compromised by drivers who have conflicting interests — ideals-wise — in their lodge and church organizations.

Lewis said also that when people have been overworked in car insurance, they become less careful in their driving.

2 More Days For Voters Sign Up

Only two more days remain in which to register for the Feb. 8 special $10 million school bond election.

The office of election commission will be open from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. Thursday to handle late registrations. Registrations close at 5 p.m. Friday.

It is estimated by Deputy Election Commissioner Pat Boyles that some 25,000 Lincoln residents who would be eligible to vote if registered are not now registered. The current total registration is 52,480.

Merle Beattie Bid Is $143,780

Wilson Construction Company of Lincoln entered apparent low bid of $143,780 for a contract to build a seven-room addition at Merle Beattie School.

No contract will be awarded, however, until after a school bond issue has been voted on in a special election Feb. 8.

Architects had estimated the cost of the addition would be $150,000.

Fischers Request Visit Clearance

SWEA CITY, Ia. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fischer Sr. telegraphed Secretary of State Dulles Wednesday asking clearance to visit their son, Capt. Harold Fischer Jr., who has been held captive by the Chinese Communists since April, 1952.

The Fischers sent their wire after reading that the State Department, because of the tense Formosan situation, is unlikely to grant passports for visits to American fliers imprisoned in Red China.

Their telegram said in part: "We don't believe there is any danger to us but even if there is we are willing to take risks to see our son. We feel it is imperative to accept Chinese invitation to speed release of our son."

Hardware Club Has New Officer Election

Speaker Says Community Centers Need Cooperation, Understanding

By BURTON MANN Star Staff Writer

The Malone Community Center, formerly the Lincoln Urban League, at its annual meeting heard Mrs. Alyce M. Wilson, Executive Secretary of the Woodson Community Center in Omaha, tell that one of the greatest needs of a community center is co-operation and understanding.

"The community center is more than children at play," Mrs. Wilson said, "it is a place used by people in their leisure time and, because people have more leisure time these days, it must offer many different ways of spending this time."

She said that the community center, through its craft classes, group discussions and other meetings it holds can give the people a chance to get together, discover each others likes and dislikes and offer an opportunity to work out group problems.

The annual meeting began with Brooklyn Dodge Jackie Robinson presenting awards to Donnie McWilliams and Sammie Zollicoffer, members of the Lincoln Mid-let Football team which won the Santa Claus Bowl in December.

The youths, both members of the community center, were recognized for their achievement in athletics and were told by Robinson that it was a tremendous inspiration for all when children can get together and work or play a game regardless of race or creed.

The financial report of the center showed that the disbursements of the center totaled $15,522.05 with a balance of $738.60. Of the total receipts of $16,260.65, the Community Chest contributed $12,997.20.

The group also formally adopted amendments to articles of incorporation to complete the change from the Lincoln Urban League to the Malone Community Center, not affiliated with the National Urban League.

Also adopted was an amendment to the constitution of the Center that the Board of Directors shall consist of 27 members, either white or colored.

Dr. Lou Radelet, director of community organization of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, expressed the cordial salutations to the community center from the National Conference.

Radelet commended the exchange of leadership and working methods between the community centers and the national conference.

A special award given at the meeting went to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Colley of 1035 Rose in honor of their 64th wedding anniversary.

The Center, named after Clyde W. Malone, who at the time of his death in 1951 was executive secretary of the Lincoln Urban League, will continue its affiliation with the Lincoln Community Chest.

Mr. James Cox became the new executive secretary for the center January 1, 1955.

The new board of directors will be elected later.

Wilson Hits Strong Criticism In Tagging Formosa Issue 'Ripple'

Official Recalls His Analysis As 'Inept'

WASHINGTON (INS) — Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson described the Formosa situation Wednesday as "just a little ripple" — nothing to get overly excited about — and ran into sharp criticism for his remark.

Wilson later told newsmen that meant Formosa was "just a little ripple" in U.S. long-range defense planning and emphasized that he was not talking about its effect on international affairs as such.

Asked by congressmen to clarify his statement, Wilson admitted that it might have been an "inept way" to express his views on how Formosa fits into the defense picture.

Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and members of the House Armed Services Committee who heard Wilson testify expressed disagreement with his interpretation of the Far East crisis.

Radford told reporters that "it isn't going to be our choice whether it is a ripple or a splash." Asked if he agreed with Wilson's statement, he added: "It might be or it might not be (a ripple)." "Unfortunately"

Rep. Dewey Short, Mo., top GOP member of the committee, termed Wilson's remark "an unfortunate use of words." He said: "It's more than a little ripple . . . It could lead to a full-scale war."

Rep. F. Edward Hebert (D-La.) another member, called the testimony "the most surprising statement I ever heard."

Wilson, testifying on the administration's military program, contended that the Asian situation does not justify any revision of plans for reducing the manpower strength of the armed forces.

While he acknowledged Army opposition to the cuts, he said the administration will go ahead with plans to reduce the services to 2,934,000 men by June 30 — a slash of 98,000 from the goal set by Congress.

As for the far east, he argued that the Nationalist China's large standing Army on Formosa eliminated the need for the U.S. to build up the size of its own Army.

Apparently aware of the criticism of his statement about Formosa, Wilson took the unusual step after a luncheon recess of the hearing to seek out newsmen in an attempt to clarify the remark.

He told them: "I don't want you to misunderstand me. I meant it was a ripple in our defense program . . . just a little ripple in our defense planning."

"I meant its impingement on our defense program as such was just a ripple. I didn't mean it was just a ripple in international affairs. It's very important but it doesn't change our military needs."

YWCA Directors Are Elected

YW Elects 8 To Board

Eight new members were elected to the YWCA board of directors at the annual meeting Wednesday night at the YW.

Elected were: Mrs. Otto Hackman, Mrs. Ralph W. Johnson, Miss Carrie King, Mrs. Herbert Knapp, Dr. Grace Loveland, Mrs. Chauncey W. Smith, Mrs. Harold B. Viquain, and Miss Beatrice White.

Two members of the board and three electoral members of the association were elected to the 1955 nominating committee. They were: Mrs. Lewis R. Anderson, Mrs. Arthur George, Miss Elsie Cather, Mrs. C. E. Keefer and Miss Berna Miskell.

In observance of the YWCA centennial, a skit was given featuring the organization of the association in London in 1855. A few high points of the Lincoln group's history were also given. Mrs. Archie Marvel of Hastings spoke at the dinner preceding the meeting.

Air Guard Needs Some Jet Pilots

The Nebraska Air National Guard has announced that there will be several jet pilot vacancies to be filled in February by pilots with previous military flying experience and by men desiring to take pilot training for the Air Guard.

Lt. Col. Fred Bailey, commander of the 173rd Fighter-Bomber Squadron, said in making the announcement that applications are now being taken for the openings. Those who enter the aviation

That's What He Gets For Being Lazy

An 18-year-old Reformatory inmate Wednesday showed a clever eye for camouflage and a mighty bunn eye for cars.

He wrapped himself in a sheet as camouflage against the snow, scaled the walls to escape and then hitchhiked a ride—with a Safety Patrol car.

Patrolman Vernon O'Neal, recognizing the youth's Reformatory garb, returned him to the institution before the escape had even been reported to the Patrol.

Reformatory officials identified the youth as Lawrence Rhodus, serving one to five years for auto theft in Dakota County. He had previously escaped from the Reformatory last October.

As officials pieced together the story, Rhodus was working in the kitchen early Wednesday when he decided to take off.

He was on Highway 34 when the ill-fated hitchhiking attempt took place.

"All that work gone for nothing," Patrolman O'Neal quoted the youth as saying.

Crosby Retained As NPPS Counsel

Dewey DeBoer of Columbus, executive manager of the Nebraska Public Power System (NPPS), said former Gov. Robert Crosby has been retained as legal counsel for NPPS on a "per diem" basis.

DeBoer said he thought Crosby would be a "real asset to us" because of his background and the fact he is "most sympathetic to the Public Power situation in Nebraska."

The former governor was said also to have received an invitation to serve as counsel for the Nebraska Rural Power Association, a group of 13 rural power districts which have withdrawn from the Nebraska Rural Electric Association. Crosby said he has not yet given his answer to this offer.

GALE-HIT SHIPS RADIO FOR HELP

HULL, England (AP)—Two British fishing trawlers radioed Wednesday night they were in trouble in North Atlantic gales. Twenty seamen were aboard each boat.

The distress signals came from widely separated points. The 559-ton Lurelia said she was caught in a severe storm off northwest Iceland. The 810-ton Rodrigo signalled from a position 90 miles northeast of Cape North, Nova Scotia.

On The Lighter Side

The morning mail contained a note that Fontaine Fox had decided to call it a day. Readers of this newspaper may recognize the name. His panel, always good for a chuckle, has appeared in this newspaper for years; in fact, it can be said, is one of the pioneers in the field of comic strips and panels. "The Powerful Katrinka," "The Terrible-Tempered Mr. Bang," and "Toonerville Folks" started years ago, and amazingly over a long period of time managed to retain a great deal of their charm, all of their wholesomeness, and much of their humor. They have been favorite folks with us, reaching back actually to characters Fontaine Fox knew in his native community in one of the older border states.

Even more, their creator, Mr. Fox, is one of our favorite people. He has provided laughs for millions, relieved the day's monotony, changed tragedy into farce comedy, and at all times has maintained a consistently high standard. His work was among the first to appear in any newspaper in this state, long before the days of a page of strips and panels, long before entertainment became a recognized part of newspaper function.

Some years ago Mr. Fox wrote a short note to this editor, commenting upon a piece that we had done in connection with Abraham Lincoln's birthday. Mr. Fox never was too busy at his drawing board, no matter how great the pressures were, to keep a finger on news and to devote time to reading and study. He made people laugh because he never permitted himself to stray far from the human side.

'Nobody's Business'

Two former members of the Nebraska Unicameral Legislature were chatting at the hotel last night when the conversation drifted to one of the strange paradoxes of recent years.

We talk about big government, and whenever that phrase bobs up, instantly the thought comes to mind that Washington is under fire. It is big government in Washington, and probably never will be anything else. But big government also has come to the states, and to the political subdivisions below the states. It is becoming bigger, and more important, more burdensome in the requirements for tax revenue, largely because government on any level is nobody's business except the individuals or the groups concerned with one single issue, usually a request for more service.

"People may be against the expansion of government," one of the veterans said, "but I can not recall in the years I served in the Unicameral that anyone took the time or trouble to protest against establishing new agencies or new activities which inevitably called for additional taxes. You heard from those who wanted the services. They always were on hand to present their case. But you heard nothing from objectors, if there were objectors."

That is not peculiar to the Unicameral. It is characteristic of government on all levels. There could be no more accurate index of national prosperity, high employment, and reasonably acceptable wage levels than is furnished by the fact that the cries for additional services from government rarely beget opposition.

The other side of the story will put in an appearance, should times get tough.

His Finest Hour

They found Ira Hayes dead as the result of over-exposure and alcoholism—the same Ira Hayes who as a combat Marine helped to raise the flag on Mt. Surabachi, symbolizing the conquest of the island of Iwo Jima in World War II. Ira was the one with a rifle slung across his back in the famous picture with which all Americans are familiar.

Ira, an Arizona Pima Indian, became a hero to everyone but himself—a brave and gallant Marine who reached the zenith of his life in the searing battle of Iwo—an all-out defender of his native land and the symbol of an aroused

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE

History weaves its skein in ways mysterious. In making their plans to unveil a heroic memorial to an American military idol, Gen. Douglas MacArthur, on the occasion of his 75th birthday anniversary, the good people of Los Angeles could not have anticipated that the issue of Red China, with which Gen. MacArthur is associated so indelibly would flame into a new crisis. But it has and because it has, it could not other than add spice to the festivities paying homage to a great soldier.

I happened to be in Washington the exact hour when Gen. MacArthur, recalled from Korea by President Truman, stepped from his plane to plant his feet on the soil of the national capital. The hour, as I recall it, was near midnight when he, his family, and his party completed the transcontinental flight from San Francisco. Earlier he had taken farewell of his staff in Tokyo, stopped briefly in Hawaii, and then had landed at San Francisco. There was a large crowd at the Washington airport to greet Gen. MacArthur. He was whisked away in a few minutes to his hotel quarters to rest after the long flight across the Pacific and through the skies of this big country before addressing a joint session of Congress at noon. From my hotel room, I could see the gleaming airport lights and reconstruct a picture of the warming welcome accorded a famous warrior. It so happened that I had an engagement with former President Truman at the White House and reached the executive offices almost at the hour that Gen. MacArthur left his hotel quarters to ride through cheering crowds in the procession to Capitol Hill. The applause showered upon Gen. MacArthur by those cheering crowds echoed faintly in the room where Mr. Truman sat talking to me.

Later I mingled with some of the crowd gathered in Washington that day. Loud-speakers had been set up along the line of march to carry Gen. MacArthur's address to Congress to eager listeners. Gone now was the cheering, replaced with a somber, grim atmosphere. Numbers of women were misty-eyed, particularly when MacArthur came to that line: "Old soldiers never die..."

Still the controversy which had reached the peak on that occasion continues, and still in the atmosphere of the free mind differences of opinion will arise. What is, and what was wisdom as milepost after milepost flitted by in this exciting story of our times? Two days later a secretary of the Navy, now dead, gave me his version of the circumstances leading to Gen. MacArthur's recall. Earlier a former President, one of the two main figures in the drama, had spoken briefly of them. After the address to a joint meeting of the Congress, the general was presented briefly to a national convention of a women's organization, and later that day he was scheduled to speak to the American Society of Newspaper Editors, an engagement which an understandably weary, exhausted man who had crossed more than 8,000 miles of ocean by plane and more than 3,000 miles of land in an atmosphere of tense emotion did not keep. He returned to his hotel quarters to rest, possibly to the disappointment of some of a group of expectant journalists, but to rest so deservedly after a day of strain which few men experience.

And on this 75th birthday anniversary, it is so fitting that all Americans, generous by nature, tolerant, understanding, appreciate that the real glory of a beloved country rests upon the right of each one, great or humble, to think for himself.

Politics Marring Railroad Safety

WASHINGTON — Most people don't know it when they read the headlines of railroad wrecks, but politics sometimes lurks behind the news of those catastrophes.

For the first time in years, in fact, politics has been injected into the ICC Bureau of Locomotive Inspection. Simultaneously "Casualties from Locomotive failures," according to official ICC records, shot up from 88 in 1953 to a record total of 265 in 1954. This is the highest in recent history.

Meanwhile, two things have happened:

1. The Eisenhower administration has recommended that locomotive inspectors be removed from the civil service.

2. There has been a backstage hassle in the White House over the director of locomotive inspection, with Charlie Willis, the bright boy who handles Ike's patronage problems, intervening to remove the civil service, nonpolitical inspector and appoint a political director instead.

Here is the inside story of how politics has been put ahead of railroad safety.

The interstate Commerce Commission is charged by law with inspecting the locomotives of the nation, and rigid inspection in the past has been partly responsible for the excellent accident record of American railroads. Each ICC inspector has 720 locomotives to inspect each year, and a group of trusted civil service employees are given this highly skilled job.

CAREER MAN WITHDRAWN

Hitherto, the chief locomotive inspector was picked from the top of the civil service list. No politics was involved. Following this tradition, Eisenhower in August nominated Charles Grossman of Albuquerque as chief of locomotive inspection. His name was taken from the top of the civil service list as a routine matter.

Grossman served as an interim appointee while the Senate was out of session, and was reappointed in February, 1954. Meanwhile there were rumblings from the little group of men in the White House who say they speak for Eisenhower that Ike wanted no confirmation by the Senate. Grossman, the career inspector, had not been appointed, but, the White House indicated to senators, he was not to be confirmed.

At the White House, busy Mr. Willis, Ike's job-dispenser, blamed it on the Senate. He said: "Bricker is holding Grossman up."

But in the senate, Chairman Bricker of the Interstate Commerce Committee confided: "The White House has sent us instructions to take no action."

Willis, it will be recalled, is the son-in-law of Tire Manufacturing Harvey Firestone who has told the FCC what TV licenses to issue, told the CAB what air lines to favor, and told government departments virtually to ignore civil service requirements in filling jobs.

Finally, the truth leaked out. Grossman, though a civil service employee, earlier in his career had been a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, which favored Adlai Stevenson. So just as the Senate was about to hold hearings and confirm him, the White House suddenly withdrew Grossman's name.

Replacing him, Charlie Willis sent to the Senate on Sept. 25 the name of John A. Hall of San Francisco to be director of locomotive inspection. Mr. Hall is not a civil service man and never had experience as inspector. He worked for the Southern Pacific, but his chief qualification was the backing of Guy Brown, Grand Chief Engineer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. Brown happened to be the only top railroad labor leader to support Ike.

During this long period of indecision and backstage wire-pulling, with inspection morale at a low ebb, railroad accidents due to locomotive failures more than doubled.

On top of this, the Eisenhower budget cut funds for locomotive inspection from $709,000 to $649,000 and last week Eisenhower appointees on the ICC moved to abolish civil service requirements for inspectors altogether.

WASHINGTON WHIRL

Marie Harriman, wife of the new governor of New York, complains that the Deweys left the governor's mansion in Albany in very poor shape. Considerable repairs and redecorating needed... At his first gubernatorial reception, Averell Harriman featured a pitcher of milk on every table... Quoth Democrat Senator Ellender of Louisiana to Democrat Senator Clint Anderson of New Mexico at a recent White House dinner: "They tried to kick you in the pants at election time despite all the things you did for them in getting flexible price supports. Yet if it hadn't been for you, they never would have got 'em."

Replied Anderson: "I'm going to stay away from your committee this year. I'll never come near it."... Anderson, a former secretary of Agriculture, had swung powerful weight on the Agriculture committee — of which Ellender is now chairman — in favor of Ezra Benson's flexible supports. His one vote won victory for Benson. Later the Republicans did their best to defeat him for reelection... Senator Lyndon Johnson of Texas was complaining about the size of the kidney stone he is having removed at Mayo's. Replied a colleague: "Everything grows bigger in Texas."

THE LADY FROM MINNESOTA

Mrs. Coya Knutson, freshman congresswoman from Minnesota, hardly had time to get settled in Washington when she received this note from her 15-year-old son, Terry, a student at Oklee (Minn.) High School: "Hurry up and do something, Mom. Folks here sure are relying on you."

Mrs. Knutson's 275,000 constituents can relax. The lady from Minnesota began talking about the downward trend of farm prices the moment she hit town and doesn't intend to stop until she has everybody from President Eisenhower down to and including Capitol page boys alerted to the situation.

"If you knew the prices my dairy and grain farmers are getting in the present market, you'd be shocked," she says. "I campaigned almost entirely on this issue and I'm going to continue campaigning here in Washington."

NOTE—Before getting into politics, Mrs. Knutson farmed and taught school. During the last campaign, a Farm-Labor leader introduced her as follows: "Many an early morning I have seen Coya in south forty running a tractor or climbing a barbed wire fence. What's more, she did it like a lady." (Copyright, 1955, by Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

China Cease Fire Explored By U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y.—President Eisenhower continues to regard his suggestion for a cease fire in the fighting north of Formosa as important proof that his China policy means peace, not war. Efforts to secure United Nations sponsorship for it will go forward in the Security Council, and, if vetoed there, in the General Assembly.

Thus it appears that while the Senate is debating the military commitments of the President's new proposals, the United Nations will be furnishing a forum for argument on its peaceful aspect, which is the cease fire.

Neither China is giving the President a hospitable reception. The Communists are virulent and vocal in their rejection of a cease fire and their demands that the United States stop intervening in Chinese affairs. The Nationalists are more polite but they also strongly oppose the cease fire, correctly viewing it as dooming their hopes of reconquering the mainland anytime soon.

The situation appears to be that the soldier-President is willing to take certain calculated risks of war in order to save Formosa and certain guardians of its portals, but has no taste whatever for Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's grandiose goal of reconquering the mainland by force.

The President's position is coming under fire from some of his influential supporters. Whether they can alter or deflect the course he has laid out for himself remains to be seen.

Right now he feels the program

MAN'S BEST FRIEND

Trudy, A Dog Of Many Talents

By ALLEN EDEE
Star Staff Writer

Sometimes it takes a stranger to bring out the best in a dog. But that is just like Trudy, the year-and-a-half-old part Irish setter, part golden retriever whose unpredictability has the Charles Splain household at 6145 South St. always in an uproar.

The Splains were astonished when they learned that their "house dog" had been hunting daily with a stranger for weeks. The man attested to Trudy's ability to flush seven pheasants in one day. The Splains did not even know the dog could hunt.

In Trudy's latest adventure she was a victim of dognaping. Mrs. Splain had been gone from home all day. When she arrived home, Trudy was missing. The family drove around in the family car hunting for Trudy, but no luck.

Ads went to the newspapers and radio. No luck. Then the hunting stranger who had grown fond of Trudy told the Splains he had overheard some men remarking that they were going to take the dog to Missouri with them.

A Missouri sheriff was checked. Several days later the sheriff called to tell the jubilant Splains that their dog was found.

The family had been running all over Lincoln tracking down reports of their lost dog.

Trudy went through a similar experience when she was first taken in by the Splains. A neighbor who had lost a dog that had looked like Trudy found the adventurous dog near his yard and began to tie her up for running away.

But upon closer inspection the neighbor decided the dog was not really his. So the unidentified dog was taken to the Humane Society where the Splains finally called and found her.

The young dog has an unusual hobby—collecting eggs. Trudy will go to a neighbor's chicken house and carefully search for eggs hidden in the hay. Once an egg is found, Trudy picks it up in her mouth and walks to the neighbor's home placing the egg in the hand of the owner without even a crackling of the shell.

SHARON SPLAIN AND TRUDY
... hunting, herding, egg-gathering ...

Trudy is a smart one, too. One evening the dog began barking and would not come inside the house. The Splains looked out the window and noticed that all of the neighbors' cows had slipped out of the lot.

Another incident occurred when the Splains' horse slipped out of the corral. Trudy stayed with the horse all night long to keep him near the lot.

After a while the dog learned to take the bridge rope in her teeth and pull the horse.

One afternoon the Splain children, Sharon, 16, and Gary, 12, looked out of the window of their home and noticed that every car that passed showed a broad grin on the face of the driver. The two looked for the source of amusement until they spied Trudy. She was trotting alongside the road carrying a wiener shaped balloon between her teeth.

Her antics extend to splashing in the horse trough in the summer or a dash through the lawn spray. But the Splains still remember the time that Trudy was inspecting the ice that had formed on the horse trough when all of a sudden—down she went—right into the icy waters.

But as one can easily see, Trudy is no wet blanket.

Gas And Oil Bill

Hebron, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: L.B. 34 now before the Legislature for consideration is an act to conserve and prohibit the waste of oil and gas produced in the state of Nebraska; to create an oil and gas commission with the power to control the production and sale of gas and oil produced in the oil and gas fields now in operation in the state of Nebraska and those that may become producers in the future. It provides for a commission of three members to be appointed by the governor and who can be removed by the governor at any time for cause. The commission is to serve without pay and be given the power to control the oil and gas industry of the state of Nebraska.

The oil and gas production industry in Nebraska is in its infancy and needs encouragement to go ahead and develop more production, not hindrance by laws that will retard its growth.

There is no good reason that can be advanced to curtail production of oil and gas in this state or any other state. So long as the major oil companies are importing more than 1,200,000 barrels into this country from their foreign holdings every day, why should they curtail production here at home by the small independent producers under the guise of conserving the oil and gas at home? So they can control the price by controlling production here at home.

It is a well known fact that there is plenty of oil in this country to supply the needs of the country. When it is exhausted there will be something to take its place. That in the history of the past—when one substance is used up, there is another to replace it. So why be disturbed about oil and gas today while there is plenty to last for many years to come?

We hear a great deal nowadays about free enterprise. Let's have a little of it in the oil and gas production and not hamper it with laws restricting production that will benefit no one but the major oil companies that dictate and control the price the consumer must pay.

The Small Rink

Lincoln, Neb.

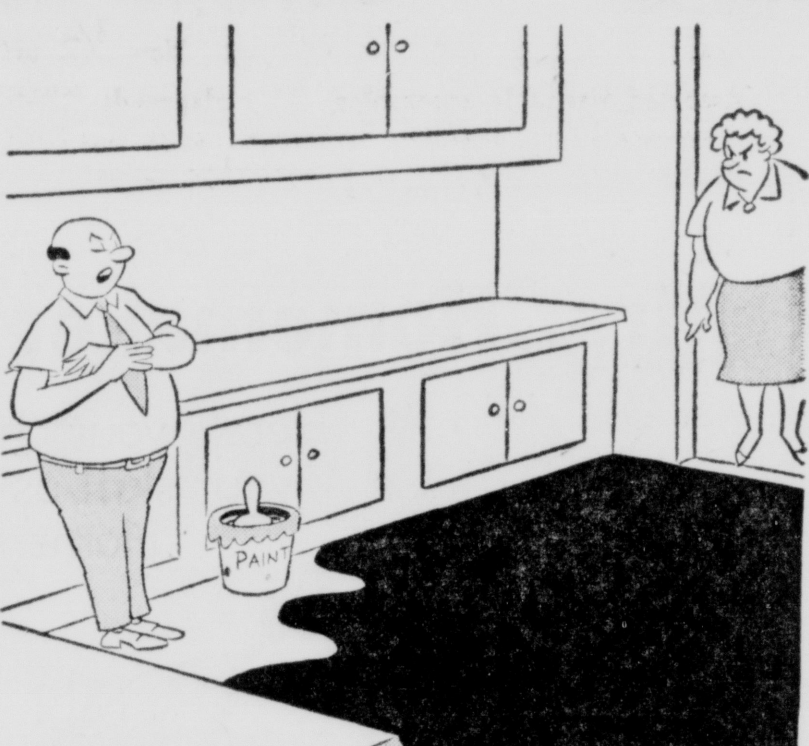

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: The 1955 itinerary of one of the leading ice shows takes them to 22 cities in this country and Canada. Here are the dimensions of the rinks where they will perform: 110 feetx300 feet, 86x218, 85x188, 80x200, 80x180, 85x195, 83x185, 85x192, 87x200, 85x195, 90x190, 80x200, 80x195, 80x205, and eight rinks 85x200.

Some of the schools which have their own rinks are the University of Denver (88x185), University of Illinois (127x198), Milton Academy (85x197), University of Michigan (81x208), Michigan State (87x200), University of Minnesota (85x200), Dartmouth College (85x188), Princeton University (85x200), Clarkson College (85-185), and West Point Academy (90-232).

This definitely proves that the miniature ice rink which is to be built in the proposed new auditorium is entirely inadequate. A first-class ice show performing here would have to leave some of its equipment behind and some of the

Individual Bill Introduction Deadline Is Near

ONLY 267 MEASURES DROPPED IN HOPPER, BUT 400 DRAFTED

Members of the Legislature had a grim warning Wednesday that the time for introduction of bills is growing short. Under the rules, the 20th legislative day, which is next Monday, is the deadline for introduction of bills by individual members. After that, the only way is through committee or by request of the governor.

When the lawmakers adjourned Wednesday only 267 measures had been dropped in the hopper, although more than 400 have been drafted.

At the same stage two years ago, 287 bills had been introduced.

Speaker Burney touched off a 30-minute discussion with an announcement that if there were any "long, complex bills" remaining to be drafted, the request should be in the hands of the bill drafter by Wednesday night.

Several Suggestions

The senators considered several suggestions, such as adjourning from Thursday until Monday, thus delaying the 20-day deadline until Tuesday; and considering bills to have met the deadline if the request is on file with the bill drafter by Friday afternoon.

Bill Drafter John J. Wilson has been on duty since Dec. 1.

"We've known the bill drafter was going to be here for some time prior to the coming of the Legislature. If any of us are going to be left out, and I may be one of them, I'm sure we can get a committee to introduce them," commented Sen. O. H. Person of Wahoo.

Two Bills Dropped

Two bills were withdrawn Wednesday by Sen. Svas of Omaha. One was his LB 184, proposing to turn all fines for truck overloading into the state school fund.

Svas said the main provision of his bill was incorporated by amendment into a similar measure by Sen. Craner of Albion. The Craner bill was aired Tuesday in Education Committee.

The Omahan also withdrew his LB 91, which proposed moving the State School for the Blind from Nebraska City to the campus of the School for the Deaf at Omaha. He said he wished to "give more leeway" in selection of a site in case the Board of Control decided to move the blind school to Omaha.

Mrs. Hill To Head Mother Committee

Gov. Victor E. Anderson announced the appointment of Mrs. Ralph Hill, wife of the state treasurer, as chairman of the Nebraska Mother Committee.

The 10 member committee will select the state mother of the year for consideration by the national mother committee. Nominations for the Nebraska mother of the year must be made by March 18.

$983 In State Taxes Paid On Mauch Estate

The state tax commissioner's office reported that the estate of Walter Mauch of Bassett, who died Feb. 14, 1952, paid $983.34 to the state treasurer.

The gross estate amounted to $622,166.83 with a net estate for taxation of $192,672.29 after deductions. The county inheritance tax was $2,557.31.

Unicam Confirms 7 Appointments

The Legislature Wednesday unanimously confirmed seven of the eight final appointments made by former Gov. Robert B. Crosby.

The appointments were recommended for confirmation by the Committee on Committees Tuesday. Committee action on the appointment of Ernest Johnson, Chadron, to the State Normal Board was postponed for two weeks pending further study.

Both support and opposition to the Johnson appointment were voiced by rival factions from Chadron at a public hearing last week. The Crosby appointments confirmed by the Legislature:

J. V. Castle, North Platte, Merit System Council.
Leon A. Sprague, Red Cloud, Game Commission.
Morris L. Evinger, Lincoln, Board of Health.
Dr. Carl J. Norden Jr., Lincoln, Board of Health.
A. D. Majors, Omaha, Normal Board.
Stanley A. Watkins, Omaha, Douglas County Tax Appraisal Board.
Arthur B. McCas, Omaha, Douglas County Tax Appraisal Board.

The Committee on Committees will hold a public hearing Thursday afternoon on the first appointments made by Gov. Victor E. Anderson.

Abolishment Of Turnpike Group Sought

A bill to abolish the State Turnpike Authority was introduced in the Legislature Wednesday by Sen. Metzger of Cedar Creek.

The authority, created by the 1953 Unicameral for the purpose of investigating the possibilities of a toll road across the state, recently asked the Legislature for $150,000 to be used in additional traffic and engineering studies.

A bill calling for the abolishment of the State Highway Commission, another creation of the 1953 session, was introduced earlier.

Also introduced Wednesday was LB 270, a measure that would have the voters of the state decide at the polls in 1956 whether to call a constitutional convention. The bill was introduced by Sens. Lee of Fremont, Burney of Hartington, and McGinley of Ogallala.

Another new plan for a probation system was proposed by Sens. Hubka of Beatrice and Bedford of Geneva. LB 268 would divide the state into 11 districts with a probation officer for each district.

A bill introduced Tuesday proposed a state-wide system under the supervision of the state attorney general's office.

There is no state-wide probation system now in effect. Only Lancaster and Douglas Counties have probation officers appointed.

Sens. Tom Adams of Lincoln and Larkin of Omaha introduced LB 274, a bill to provide state employees with a 40 hour week and overtime payment.

Bus Drop Requested

The Greyhound Corp., Omaha, has asked permission to discontinue its 11 p.m. run from Sioux City, Ia., to Omaha, the State Railway Commission announced.

'Separate Fees For Tractor, Trailer Needed'

An attorney general's opinion said that separate registration fees on a pound basis should be paid for commercial trucks and two wheel trailers pulled by the trucks.

The opinion, written by Asst. Atty. Gen. Ralph Nelson, pointed out that a combined registration fee on a pound basis is paid for truck tractors pulling semi-trailers. A simple one dollar fee is charged for the trailer when pulled by a truck tractor.

However, the opinion added that the two wheel trailers, used primarily by power companies, comprise a different situation when pulled by commercial trucks.

Heart Month Dedicated To Butler, Griswold

Gov. Anderson Wednesday proclaimed February as American Heart Month in Nebraska and urged all civic organizations to fight heart disease.

The proclamation was dedicated to the memory of the late Hugh Butler and Dwight Griswold, U. S. senators from Nebraska who died of heart disease last year.

Polio Benefit Reset

The Walton polio benefit carnival, previously postponed, will be held Feb. 2, at 7:30 p.m. at the Walton school auditorium. There will be inside booths and other attractions. It is sponsored by community extension clubs.

Simmons To Again Head Cornhusker Government Study

Chief Justice Robert G. Simmons was re-elected president of Cornhusker Boys' and Girls' County Government at a meeting here.

Chief Justice Simmons originated the idea of a study of county government by high school students through election of student "county officials."

Mrs. E. N. Swett of South Sioux City, vice president, and R. C. Patterson of Lincoln, secretary-treasurer, also were re-elected.

Similar projects sponsored by the American Legion and its auxiliary in Kansas, Missouri and Wisconsin are being planned, it was reported.

Red Leader Guilty In Key Verdict

Lightfoot Convicted In First Smith Act Test

CHICAGO (AP) — Communist leader Claude Lightfoot Wednesday was convicted of informed membership in the Communist party, in a precedent-setting jury verdict with far-reaching implications.

The case provided the first test of a Smith Act provision holding that membership in an organization, knowing it advocates violent overthrow of the U.S. government, is a punishable crime.

The provision goes beyond mere membership. The law specifies that a member, before he can be adjudged guilty, must have knowledge that the organization seeks or advocates violent overthrow of the government.

The law provides a possible maximum sentence of 10 years in prison and $10,000 fine.

Prosecutions under the Smith Act heretofore have been based against groups of Communist leaders charged with conspiring against the government.

Lightfoot, 44-year-old executive secretary of the Communist party in Illinois, told newsmen he will continue to work for the Communist party until his case is finally disposed of through further legal steps including appeal, if necessary.

He remained free on $30,000 bond.

A defense motion for a new trial was set for hearing on Feb. 15. Judge Philip L. Sullivan in federal court also will rule then on a defense motion for a directed verdict of acquittal.

Lightfoot's lawyers moved for a directed verdict of acquittal when the prosecution rested its case. Judge Sullivan deferred an immediate ruling, heard the defense evidence and sent the trial to the jury.

If on Feb. 15 he denies the directed verdict and rejects the plea for a new trial, Judge Sullivan will pass sentence.

The defense contended the government failed to prove the Communist party or Lightfoot advocated violent overthrow of the U.S. government.

The prosecution's case was designed to show that Lightfoot is a Communist, that the Communist party advocates the overthrow of the U.S. government by force and violence and that Lightfoot knew the party's purpose and intended to further it.

The implications of the verdict, if it is upheld, are that the government could bring similar charges against any individual Communist party member, needing only to prove the member was aware of and endorsed the party's aims.

Lightfoot, his chief prosecutor, James Parsons; one of two defense lawyers, George E. Crockett Jr.; and three of the jurors are Negroes.

Allies 'Actively' Discuss Peaceful Solution To Formosa Crisis

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (INS)—British U.N. delegate Sir Pierson Dixon said Britain, the U.S. and New Zealand are "actively discussing" methods for peaceful solution of the Formosa crisis.

The British diplomat declared in an address at the Hotel Waldorf-Astoria:

"We are all at this moment greatly concerned about the fighting in the area of the Formosa Straits. It has been and it is the first concern of my government to stop the fighting in this potentially dangerous area."

Dixon added: "Our purpose is peace. There are no hidden intentions. Our aim is simply to stop the hostilities and preserve the peace of the world."

Prime Minister Sidney Holland of New Zealand, who was in New York on his way to the London conference of Commonwealth Prime Ministers next week, was among the guests present at the gathering.

Dixon told the audience:

"We must see to it that those countries nearly behind the Iron Curtain are no further imbedded in the Communist empire and that they have a bridge back."

U.N. Action
Dixon did not elaborate on the statement nor did he disclose Britain's intentions regarding possible U.N. action to effect a cease-fire between Nationalist China and the Communist regime in Peiping.

Dixon said the U. N. remains "perhaps the most important arena" in which the battle between democracy and Communism "for men's minds can be fought." He added: "And I am convinced that in this world-wide debate we are swinging the opinion of the world to our side."

Dixon's speech was delivered after British Foreign Secretary Sir Anthony Eden told the House of Commons in London that Britain, the U.S. and other friendly governments are examining peaceful ways of solving the "dangerous situation" around Formosa.

No Word
Western diplomats and officials at the U. N. maintained they have no word as to formal raising of the Formosa question either in the Security Council or any other U. N. body.

However, key Allied delegations were reported studying a draft of a resolution drawn up by New Zealand appealing to Formosa and Peiping to agree on a cease-fire to avert a major conflict in the Far East.

The resolution, which is subject to revision, would be placed before the Security Council if and when a decision has been reached to convene the 11-nation body to consider the Far East situation as a major threat to peace.

Stockholders elected the following as members of the board of directors:

for the Security Council if and when a decision has been reached to convene the 11-nation body to consider the Far East situation as a major threat to peace.

New Zealand, supported by Britain and the U.S., is expected to take the initiative on the matter.

Soviet Help Essential For Red China To Muster Armed Power

Thursday, January 27, 1955 THE LINCOLN STAR 9

... Peiping Alone Can't Field Army

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN
WASHINGTON (INS) — Behind President Eisenhower's hope that Formosa can be saved without a fight lies a mass of intelligence reports that picture Red China as an empty shell behind a fierce facade.

The administration recognizes that as long as Russia and her European satellites pump warplanes and guns into China, the Peiping regime can muster a formidable air and ground fighting force.

But the view is that if for any reason this aid is cut off, China would be unable on her own to field a military force capable of fighting an effective war with a modern army.

Hopes Are Slim

The main hopes for a negotiated cease-fire rested with this internal weakness of Communist China. Hopes for such a negotiated truce were slim, however, in view of the belligerent stand the Chinese Reds have taken.

If there is a real effort to get a cease-fire, officials said undoubtedly there would be a meeting of Chinese Communist and U.S. officials similar to the one which arranged an Indochina armistice last summer in Geneva.

It was pointed out that it would be impossible to arrange a cease-fire without talking with the Chinese Communists.

Revocation Of Rail Order Requested

The Chicago, Burlington, and Quincy Railroad asked the State Railway Commission to revoke its order of Jan. 18 for agency service to be restored at Republican City.

In its request, the CB&Q said it received "no notice and no opportunity to be heard on the question of facts."

Mrs. Jessie A. Burgin, acting commission secretary, said the railroad originally had not asked the commission to discontinue the service, a hearing is now likely to be held, she added.

Prize Cherry Pie Recipe

This is the cherry pie recipe used by Elaine Hinz, Rising City, 4-H club member, to win the state cherry pie baking contest:

Cherry Pie Filling

3 T. cornstarch
1/2 c. cherry juice
3/4 c. sugar
1/8 t. salt
1/8 t. red food color

2 T. butter
1/8 t. almond extract
3 c. frozen red sour cherries, drained

Combine cornstarch with 1/4 c. cherry juice. Add to remaining 1/4 c. juice in top of double boiler. Cook until very thick and clear, stirring constantly. Add sugar, salt and red food color. Cook 5 minutes longer. Add the butter and almond extract. Remove from heat. Fold in cherries. Set aside while making pastry.

Pie Crust

1 1/2 c. flour
1/2 c. plus 2 T. shortening
1 t. salt
4 to 5 T. cold water

Sift flour and salt together into mixing bowl. Work in 1/2 of shortening with pastry blender. Add remaining shortening and work until particles are size of small peas.

Seybolt Provides For Morrill Park

A $6,000 fund for the improvement of Seybolt Park in Morrill County has been provided under a will and codicils of Floyd Seybolt, Lincoln resident who died last Jan. 23.

Mr. Seybolt's will has been filed for probate in Lancaster County Court.

Seybolt Park, a 150-acre tract, is the location of historical Courthouse Rock and Jail Rock, according to the will.

Under its provisions, quarter-shares in the estate's residue are left to Albert T. Seybolt of Denver, a brother; Sarah S. Kirk of Lincoln, a sister; Alta S. Herbrick of Sterling, a niece; and Veda S. McReynolds of Ashland, a niece.

Requests of $500 each were left to Andrew D. Seybolt of Lincoln, a brother; Harold S. Kirk of Joliet, Ill., a nephew; and Marian S. Allen of Denver, a niece.

Sutherland Seeks Permanent Name For Rogers Tract

A move to give a permanent name to the city-owned tract of ground at 33rd and O, commonly known as the Rogers Tract, will be made by Charles Sutherland.

Sutherland stated that he will make his proposal at the Jan. 27 meeting of the Knife and Fork Club of which he is secretary-treasurer.

The property derived its designation as the Rogers Tract from Mrs. G. H. Rogers who deeded the land to the city for $65,000. The city obtained the $65,000, however, as a gift from the late Frank H. Woods in honor of his father and mother, Colonel and Mrs. F. M. Woods.

The deed stipulates that there be established on the tract a suitable memorial to the late George Hippee Rogers.

Sutherland has suggested that the tract be officially designated as The Colonel Woods Memorial Park. He suggests that a Rogers Road be constructed from O to 32nd and J to meet the deed stipulation.

County Road OK'd For Federal Fund

Some three miles of county road south of Lincoln have been approved as part of Lancaster County's federal-aid secondary system by the County Board.

The approved east-west stretch is one mile south of Pioneers Blvd., and between the county extensions of 14th and 56th Streets.

County engineer said the re-surfacing of the worn-out asphalt road, which connects with U.S. 77 and State 2, and a short cut-off would be proposed later with matching funds.

Travel over the road is in excess of 700 motor vehicles a day, he said.

Nebraska '54 Bond Sales Topped Quota By Fifth To Lead Nation

Iowa, South Dakota Also High

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nebraskans were the champion savings-bond buyers of 1954, over shooting their quota by a fifth, the Treasury said. The announcement from Earl O. Shreve, national director of the Treasury's Savings Bonds Division, said Iowa was next and that seven other states also topped their sales quotas for Series "E" and "H" savings bonds, the most popularly purchased issues.

New Goal Set

State quotas are based on population, income and other factors. For the nation as a whole Shreve said, sales were about 92 per cent of the goal of $5,300,000,000. A new goal of 5 1/2 billion has been set for 1955.

New York led in dollar sales with 512 millions, followed by Illinois and Pennsylvania.

Here are the three top quota-breaking states, and their dollar sales:

Nebraska, 120 per cent of quota and sales of $112,685,000.

Iowa, 110.8 per cent and $154,960,000.

South Dakota, 105 per cent and $34,960,000.

Smith Trial Jury Picking Not Complete

HASTINGS, Neb. (AP)—A jury to hear the first degree murder charge against Daniel Smith, 25, Hastings, is expected to be completed Thursday, or by Friday at the latest, although additional panel members may have to be called.

Smith is charged with the fatal beating of Patrick Walsh, 5, at the Robert Walsh farm home north of here last Nov. 3 after Mrs. Smith had been attacked inside the house.

When court recessed late Wednesday 11 jurors had been tentatively seated.

There were 17 left to be examined of the original 60 called.

14 Drowned
LISBON, Portugal (AP)—Thirteen women and one man drowned in the Dio Channel of Portuguese India when their boat capsized, it was announced.

Both Snyder, Foley Are In Omaha

Ex-Treasury Secretary Snyder Testifies In Grand Jury Probe

OMAHA (AP)—John W. Snyder, former Secretary of the Treasury, took the stand Wednesday before a federal grand jury probing St. Louis Internal Revenue matters. After waiting all forenoon without being called, Snyder went into the jury in mid-afternoon. Earlier in the day the grand jury heard William H. Woolf, Washington attorney and former internal revenue official, and George J. Schoeneman, former internal revenue commissioner and administrative assistant to President Truman.

Foley Returns

Also in Omaha for this third session of the current grand jury was Edward H. Foley Jr., Washington, who was undersecretary to Snyder in the Treasury Department.

Snyder is the highest ranking member of the Truman administration to appear before the grand jury inquiring into the conduct of the St. Louis Internal Revenue office.

In earlier sessions the Omaha grand jury heard James P. Finnegan, former St. Louis collector now serving a federal prison term for misconduct in office, and other present and former internal revenue officials.

One Indictment
Only one indictment has been returned by the grand jury. G. Elmer Brown, Philadelphia Internal Revenue Service official, was accused of perjury in his testimony before the grand jury in connection with the 1950 investigation of the St. Louis Internal Revenue office.

Finnegan and his staff were cleared in that investigation but later another investigation was undertaken and Finnegan was indicted.

Shortly after the grand jury reconvened here Wednesday special agents of the Internal Revenue Service arrived with five bulging briefcases, three of which were taken into the jury room.

Snyder was still in the jury room when the session recessed for the day and it was assumed that he would return Thursday. When asked if he had any statement on leaving the jury room, Snyder replied: "None."

It was understood that he would produce certain records for the grand jury pursuant to subpoena.

Foley was not called, but observers thought it likely he would be called Thursday.

George J. Schoeneman, administrative assistant to President Truman and former internal revenue commissioner; and William H. Woolf, former internal revenue intelligence chief, also were in the jury room Wednesday.

Mrs. Edna Donald Meeting With Ike Among Leaders

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower had breakfast at the Sulgrave Club Wednesday with a group of Republican women leaders invited to give him the "feminine viewpoint" on conditions.

The list included: Secretary of Welfare Overt Culp Hobby; Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, only woman in the Senate; Reps. # Power Suit Trial To Start March 15

Suit Concerns Proposed Steam Generating Plant

COLUMBUS, Neb. (AP)—Judge H. Emerson Kokjer of Wahoo has set March 15 as the opening date for trial of one of the lawsuits involved in the complex power litigation in Platte County District Court.

The suit concerns the question of whether or not Consumers Public Power District has the right to build a steam generating plant for its own use and use of Nebraska Public Power System cost-of-service customers. Complicating the suit are cross-petitions filed both by Consumers and NPPS.

Judge Kokjer set no trial dates on two other lawsuits which are part of the overall power fight.

One involves the authority of Loup River Public Power District to issue $17,600,000 in bonds without prior budget board approval. The other concerns the question of whether NPPS and Consumers have violated their cost-of-service contracts by failing to bring all possible Reclamation Bureau power from Missouri River dams. Attorneys representing a number of parties involved in the litigation held a pre-trial conference here Monday and Tuesday. It will be continued Feb. 28.

The conference is aimed as the possibility of simplifying issues, making any formal amendments to pleadings and in general exploring possibilities of stipulations and agreements which might help simplify and shorten the litigation.

450 Attending Meeting Of State 4-H Leaders

More than 450 leaders of 4-H clubs from nearly every county in Nebraska arrived here Wednesday for the opening of a four-day training conference.

They were welcomed at their opening session by E. W. Janike, associate director of the Agricultural Extension Service. He also introduced representatives of the organizations sponsoring the leaders to the training conference which included Jess Thurmond, Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben, Omaha; Chris Sanders, Cooper Foundation, Lincoln; Morse Palmer, Standard Oil Foundation, Chicago; and representatives of the local rural power suppliers.

Following the welcome, C. C. Lang, associate leader of 4-H Clubs and Young Men and Women, Washington, D. C., told the leaders that a junior leadership program in 4-H served these purposes: 1. places responsibility peculiar to the upper teen age, 2. trains these youth for future leadership, 3. gets more jobs done, 4. broadens circle of friends for youth, 5. provides for the development of the individual's personality, 6. provides a functional teamwork between the adults and the young people.

The junior leadership program, now in its second year of development in Nebraska, is gaining wide acclaim among leaders throughout the state.

Lang pointed out that junior leaders may make a valuable contribution to the local club by advising junior project groups, training demonstrators, helping with record books, directing the health program, and assisting in the development of capable 4-H club officers.

Setting forth a general philosophy of leadership, Lang told the 4-H leaders, "We should be working to become skilled, sensitive consultants who are able to help young people and adults take part actively and responsibly at each step in managing their own affairs. They should be able to recognize jobs important enough to challenge their time and effort, plan and agree on alternatives to follow, carry out their decisions, decide on next jobs to be done in the light of the results of work already done."

Featured entertainment for the evening was an illustrated talk by Miss Dorothy McLean, Lexington, Nebraska's International Farm Youth Exchange Delegate to Scotland. She told of her four-month stay with farm families in that country during the past summer.

Wes Antes, state 4-H club leader, who presided at the opening session, told leaders there were 24,175 boys and girls enrolled in 4-H club work during the past year—an increase of nearly 1,500 over 1953.

The group will convene Thursday morning at the Student Union Ballroom on the city campus. Thursday afternoon the leaders will begin their training in home living, foods, clothing, tractors, livestock, dairying, rural electricity, and crops and conservation. These sessions will be held at the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture.

Suit Over Gas Tax Allocation Hits Snag In Lancaster Court

One of the three cases over the Nebraska gas tax allocations has hit a legal snag—at least temporarily—in Lancaster District Court.

Judge Harry A. Spencer has ruled the suit brought by an Omaha taxpayer and joined by Douglas County against former State Treasurer Frank Heintze and his two bonding companies is insufficient—not in proper form.

Demurrers of the defendants bond companies were sustained as to objections that they should not be named defendants in the same suit because their bonds covered Heintze during two separate terms of office.

Continuation of the suit, which alleges the county lost $300,000 through improper allocation of gas tax funds, would hinge under the ruling upon the filing of separate actions against the bonding companies—Maryland Casualty Company and Indemnity Insurance Company of North America.

The court's ruling is expected to apply to the Lancaster County gas tax suit in which a similar demurrer has been filed but not submitted to the court.

In anticipation of a similar ruling, Lancaster Co. Atty. Elmer Scheele said he would start preparation of amended petitions for separate actions against each bonding company.

He plans to have an accountant start work immediately to determine the amount that was lost during each of Heintze's terms of office.

The county's current petition seeks recovery of $148,985.85 as the alleged amount lost to Lancaster County.

The declaratory judgment action brought by Heintze against the 93 counties is not affected by the ruling in the Douglas County case.

Heintze in his action has deposited nearly $3 million with the Lancaster District Court and asks for a court interpretation of the gas tax statutes and determination of the rights of the parties.

Fifty-seven counties have submitted objections to being joined together by Heintze in a single suit brought in the Lancaster District Court.

They contend Heintze should bring the action against each defendant county in its "own" District Court.

Judge Spencer expects to rule on this contention in the Heintze suit this week.

To Say Goodbye

There are no spare moments on Mrs. John Lessenhop's calendar this week—She is an extremely busy person and her project is packing.

Mrs. Lessenhop will leave this week-end for Walker, Ia., where she will join Mr. Lessen-hop who has been residing there since November.

For the time being, however, the Lessenhop residence will not be in Walker, since no house is available at the moment, but in Center Point, Ia., which is just a matter of a few miles away.

LOTS of flitting about around town this morning—People going, people coming—people moving away—people moving from one place to another in town—brides-elect dashing from here to there (between exams) to be honored at this party and that—As you can see, it adds up to a busy dawn—

AMONG the moving-awayers are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schimm and their daughters, Mary Ann and Judith, who are leaving Lincoln to reside in Ottawa, Ontario, Can. In fact Mr. Schimm leaves two weeks from today for the trek to the north, and will be followed in two or three weeks by Mrs. Schimm and their daughters.

YOU probably have heard that the John Lessenhop bought a bank in Walker, Ia.—and doubtless you know that Mr. Lessenhop has been in Walker since November—But did you know that Mrs. Lessenhop is leaving within the next few days? With bag and baggage, Mrs. Lessenhop takes off this week-end, and will go to Center Point, Ia., a few miles from Walker, where the family will reside—at least temporarily.

OUR in-town movers are Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Vogt whose brand new address is 3900 Woods Ave. Mr. and Mrs. Vogt have just moved into their new home from 1929 So. 28th St.

IN THE travel department this morning we have David Calhoun who planned off on Wednesday for Los Angeles, Calif., where he will be met by his mother, Mrs. O. V. Calhoun. After a few days in southern California Mrs. Calhoun and her son will go to San Francisco where they will visit Mrs. Calhoun's daughter, Miss Mary Lou Calhoun, a student at Stanford University, and San Francisco friends.

JUST heard that Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Roberts, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hurtz of Omaha, will be leaving on Monday, Feb. 14, for a month's holiday in Mexico—Mexico City and numerous other places of interest.

SPEAKING of places of interest—Ross P. Curtice is back in town after a few weeks spent as the guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Gen. and Mrs. Arthur Harris at their home on Hobe Sound. One of the four weeks Mr. Curtice spent away from Lincoln was devoted to the island of Haiti where the traveler visited the Citadel of La Ferriere, and the Palace of Sans Souci built during the reign of Henri Christophe, the Negro king.

ONE of those busy brides that we mentioned is Miss Earlene Luff whose marriage to Arthur Knox will take place on Feb. 19.

On Saturday Miss Luff will be an honoree when Mrs. Claude Anderson, Mrs. Roderick Andrews, Mrs. Kenneth Lawson and Mrs. John Maher are dessert luncheon hostesses at the home of Mrs. Anderson. Sixteen guests have been invited for the luncheon and a kitchen shower for the soon-to-be-bride.

ON next Tuesday's calendar for Miss Luff is the china, crystal and silver shower for which Mrs. Stanley Haight and Miss Carol Eddy will be hostesses when they entertain at the home of Mrs. Haight. The 16 guests will spend the evening informally.

MISS LUFF'S bridal attendants, Miss Barbara Sorenson, Miss Margery Antes, Miss Genele Jensen, Miss Phyllis Dudley and Miss Marilyn Pelikan, will compliment the bride-elect on Feb. 13 when they are hostesses at an afternoon party and a miscellaneous shower.

Plan State Meeting

The women's state advisory board of the Nebraska Civil Defense organization will sponsor an all-day meeting in Lincoln Friday at the Hotel Cornhusker.

Presidents and representatives of all women's state organizations as well as women's civil defense chairmen throughout Nebraska have been invited to attend the conference which will be highlighted Friday noon by a talk by Governor Victor Anderson. Following the noon luncheon, an informal reception will be held.

Also addressing the group will be Mrs. Ruth Kirk of Denver, regional advisor for women's activities in civil defense. A report on the national civil defense meeting held recently in Washington, D. C., will be given by Mrs. Gladys Yost of Milford, deputy director of women's civil defense activities in the state, and Mrs. George Robertson of Omaha, co-chairman of civil defense for Douglas County.

LWC Group Hears Guest Speaker

Following a talk by John Sipma, school principal, on the proposed school bond issue, a program of instrumental music was given by Allen Radke, Melvin Hester and Jackie Keech, accompanied by Mrs. Glen Hester, pianist.

Hostesses for the social hour were mothers of kindergarten and second grade pupils.

Announcing the members of her bridal party this morning is Miss Shirley Richters, whose marriage to Robert DeBus will take place Sunday, Feb. 13, at St. John's Lutheran Church in Seward.

A GREETING TO LINCOLN'S NEW NEIGHBORS

Thursday, January 27, 1955 THE LINCOLN STAR 15

It well could be that we're in for a long, hard winter—But a few more inches of snow added to what already is on the ground won't mar or make the season—at least not as far as our new residents are concerned. Some of them, in fact most of them, are accustomed to frigid temperatures and snow—

Capt. and Mrs. Robert Weber, and their two daughters, Marcia and Roberta, are delighted with the weather for the plausible reason that the Webers enjoy winter sports and plan to do some skiing in Colorado. The Webers can call at least four states home—Capt. Weber is a native of New Jersey—Mrs. Weber of Missouri—Marcia of Illinois, and Roberta, of California. Capt. Weber, of course is with the Air Force, and is stationed at the Lincoln Air Force Base where he is an observer and navigator.

We hear that it takes a little reminding, on the part of Lt. and Mrs. Harry Simmons and their two daughters, Judy and Gwyneth to put on overcoats and galoshes. The Simmons family has just returned from a three years residence on Oklawaha where, apparently, galoshes, mittens and earmuffs are excess baggage.

Mrs. Simmons tells us that her problem really isn't the weather, at the moment, but the fact that their furniture has not arrived—an important item on any homemaker's list—But at least the lack of furniture has given the Simmons time to add some finishing touches to their home at 2803 No. 65th St. There have been a few coats of paint added—and we were told that the paint job is the handiwork of the Air Force officer who is mighty handy with a paint brush.

In the family of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Carr are three sons, David, Jackie and young Don—and a daughter, Barbara, who hope that it snows, and snows and snows—At least three-fourths of the Carr younger generation wouldn't mind it a bit if it snowed so much Holmes School would have to close its doors for a week or two—It isn't that Barbara, David and Jackie don't like school—it's just that they like snow better, and the idea of Don being able to build as many snowmen, throw as many snowballs, and play in the snow as much as he likes—makes them a bit envious. You see, the Carrs came to Lincoln from California—which explains the small-frys' great delight in the snow—But Mrs. Carr, who resided in Norfolk for all of her unmarried years, doesn't think it is such a treat. We hear that Mr. Carr is on a food-saving plan in Lincoln—and that is a job—or a profession—that should make him particularly popular with all budgeteers.

YWCA Holds Heirloom Exhibit

The Lincoln YWCA marked the national organization's centennial anniversary Wednesday by sponsoring an exhibit of family heirlooms preceding the YW's annual dinner and business meeting.

The outstanding collection included a very old clock (above) belonging to the Rev. and Mrs. I. J. Dumas, which serves as a background in the picture for the antique sugar bowl and spoon holder loaned for the exhibit by Mrs. H. F. Mattoon. Not included in the picture is a candleholder and silver candle snuffer which matches the spoon holder.

The quaint stuffed birds, without which no Victorian parlor would have been complete, are the property of Miss Norma Carpenter.

On the table at the left is a tiny doll's dresser, complete to the last detail to one that great grandmother might have owned. The larger chest is a silver cabinet which was made in 1780, and at the right are a doll dresser and a doll, wearing its original clothes, both over one hundred years old.

Also over one hundred years old are the matching cream pitcher, sugar bowl and marmalade dish in the foreground. The exhibit also included a display of antique dolls loaned by Miss Gladys Lux, a member of the Lincoln Doll Club. Mrs. S. J. Fieselman was in charge of the heirloom exhibit, and chairman of the hostess committee which served tea during the afternoon hours was Mrs. Wesley C. Becker.

OLDTIMERS HEAR RICKEY, ROBINSON

Joe DiMaggio, Lyons, Vance, Hartnett To 'Hall Of Fame'

By PAT ROBINSON
NEW YORK (INS) — Joe DiMaggio, one of the greatest of all modern-day outfielders, pitchers Dazzy Vance and Ted Lyons and catcher Gabby Hartnett all were elected Wednesday to baseball's hall of fame.

DiMaggio, virtually peerless centerfielder for the New York Yankees who ended a sensational 13-year career when he retired in 1951, led the talented quartet into the game's immortal circle.

The Yankee Clipper polled 223 votes out of a possible 251 cast by members of the Baseball Writers Association.

Lyons, who won 260 games in a brilliant 21-year career with the Chicago White Sox, received 217 votes, while Vance, one of the great all-time National League hurlers, polled 205 votes.

Hartnett, one of the game's hard-hitting catchers who starred in his playing days for the Chicago Cubs, was elected to the game's shrine when he got 195 votes.

The "magic number" for election was 189 — a three-fourths majority in the ballots cast by ten-year members of the association.

Total Now 77
Election of the foursome boosted the number of players in the Hall of Fame to 77. Rabbit Maranville, Bill Terry and Bill Dickey were elected last year — and DiMaggio, Lyons, Vance and Hartnett missed being designated in that order.

The 41-year-old Yankee Clipper, 14 votes shy last year, was regarded as a certainty to gain entrance this time, which he did in

GABBY HARTNETT

Lyons Vance

Hank Greenberg (157), Joe Cronin (135), Max Carey (119) and Ray Schalk (113) were the near misses in this year's balloting.

DiMaggio, who was getting the highest player's salary in history (an estimated $100,000) when he hung up his spikes in 1951, had a lifetime batting mark of .325. He hit a total of 361 homers.

Jolting Joe was the big guy on Yankee teams that won ten pennants and nine world championships after he joined the club in 1936.

MVP Three Times

DiMaggio was named most valuable player in the American League three times (1939, 1941 and 1947) and was batting champion in 1939 with a .381 mark and in 1940 with a .352 average.

The Clipper, whose feat of hitting safely in 56 straight games in 1941 stands as one of the most outstanding achievements in sports history, was picked for the all-star game in every one of his 13 seasons.

DiMaggio came very close to what baseball men refer to as the perfect player. He was a graceful, flawless fielder with a deadly arm and a smart, smooth base runner.

GAMES FRIDAY
7:15 p.m.—Malcom vs. Waverly (consolation)
8:45 p.m.—Firth vs. Hickman (championship)

By GEORGE PAYNICH
Star Sports Staff Member

Hickman supported the old sports adage that it always a good idea to stick with the defending champion.

The Bulldogs, with veterans Butch Devries and Larry Schmutte highlighting the play, knocked heavily favored Waverly from Lancaster County Tourney play Wednesday night, 60-55, and thus earned the right to meet Firth in Friday's title game. Firth earned the finals by disposing of Malcom easily 58-33.

The Hickman-Waverly affair was close throughout. Waverly edged to an 18-16 lead at the quarter after a ding-dong battle that saw the lead change hands five times.

29-25 at Half

In the second period it was all Schmutte and Devries for Hickman scoring-wise with some fighting assistance coming from the peewee sophomore corps of Bob Jacobson, Marlynn May and Denny White. Hickman surprised by moving to a 29-25 halftime margin.

The Bulldogs proved that it was not a temporary state of affairs by increasing the margin to 10 points at 45-35. Lee Snyder brought Malcom back to a 43-49 lag at the three-quarter mark. Hickman however kept the pressure and a four-point margin on right up to the final gun. Devries with 20 and Schmutte with 22 led the scorers.

Better Ball

In the evening opener Firth displayed a much better brand of ball than in their opener to breeze past Malcom. Malcom, the winner of a thrilling overtime win in Tuesday's quarterfinals just didn't have it for this game.

Ron Rodemaker for the winners took the play away from his teammates to spearhead the attack with 20 points.

Firth led at the half by 16 points, 30-14, and increased the final to a 20-point margin at 58-38. Malcom apparently was on the way to another fourth stanza comeback, but the attack fizzled when the chief instigator of such proceedings, Glen Schmiedling, fouled out of the contest with four minutes left and his club trailing by 14.

Good rebounding by Verl Mulder helped make it a rout in the final minutes. The lanky Wildcat followed Rodemaker in the point production phase with 15.

Thursday the boys are idle as Wesleyan meets Kearney on the Taylor maples. Final play Friday wraps up the week-long carnival.

ROY McCLARITY

Speed, Science To Seek Rattle Title

Rugged Roy McClarity and powerful Pat O'Connor tonight will try to break the stranglehold Reggie Lisowski and Art Nielson have on the world Australian tag team rassing championship before an expected capacity crowd at the Fairgrounds Arena.

The program starts at 8:30 p.m. McClarity, a 235-pound Canadian, and O'Connor, 232-pound native of New Zealand, will pit speed and science against the hell-for-leather rassing of the blonde champions. Nielson and Lisowski kept their crown two weeks ago by dint of an unpopular victory over Hans Schmidt and Hans Hermann. A standing-room-only crowd thought the champs received unfair advantage when a single referee was unable to keep them both out of the ring.

Tonight two referees will police the bout—Joe and Bob Krejci of Omaha. The card opens with a match between Antonio (Ripper) Leone and Joe Dusek. Babs Wingo and Kathy Wimbley give Lincoln fans their first look at Negro girl rasslers in the other semi-windup.

Buddy Young, backfield star for the Baltimore Colts, has signed to do a daily disc jockey show in Baltimore.

High Spot of the annual meeting at the Malone Community Center Wednesday night for at least two boys was the appearance of major league baseball star Jackie Robinson. Above, Robinson is shown congratulating two members of the Lincoln All-City Midget League football team, Santa Claus Bowl champions last month. The two graders are Donnie McWilliams (left) and Sammy Zollicoffer. (Star Photo.)

Reporting that the Pirates had 105 players coming out of the armed forces this year to help continue the building program at Pittsburgh—and to bolster farm clubs—Rickey said, "We want to feel that Pittsburgh is part of Lincoln, not just that Lincoln is a part of the Pittsburgh system."

In other action, the festive group heard "Old Hungry" emcee and pay tribute to Sam (Big Sam the Butcher) Waugh in his inimitable fashion, as well as seeing and hearing the following:

Fire Chief Paul Feaster was revealed as the new president of the Oldtimers, succeeding John Lawlor.

A memorial tribute was paid to Billy Turner, longtime baseball enthusiast, and Walter Dobbins, former sports editor of The Lincoln Journal, both of whom died during the past year.

Gov. Victor Anderson presented admiralships in the Nebraska Navy to Robinson and Rickey.

He then said that Pittsburgh was coming to Lincoln "enchanted by the hospitality and civic interest toward baseball."

"We don't know exactly what you'll have this year, but we can promise a young interesting team. And you'll probably find Lincoln in a higher spot in the Western League than Pittsburgh is in the National," he laughed.

"On Your Team"

Robinson, the Brooklyn Dodger great and first Negro to make the grade in the major leagues, presented Dean with an autographed baseball and heard the boy say, "I'm on your team, Jackie."

In his remarks to the assembled group of Oldtimers, Robinson paid particular tribute to Branch Rickey Sr., the former Dodger boss who gave him his chance.

Rickey is now the president of the Pittsburgh Pirates, with whom Lincoln has a working agreement.

"Had it not been for Branch Rickey Sr., I couldn't have carried the load," Jackie said, referring to the first two years of his career in the majors when the pressure against a Negro was the greatest.

"There's not another man in this country or in baseball that I have more respect for and I'm thankful for the opportunity he gave me and the American Negro," Jackie said.

Athlete Only

Citing his first game with Brooklyn, Jackie said when he took his position he became aware of the fact that he was going to be judged as an athlete only.

"All I asked was an opportunity to prove that I was able to play for Brooklyn."

Robinson said he made one serious mistake in letting newsmen convince him he would have trouble getting along with white players and it resulted in his adopting a standoffish "you go your way and I'll go mine" attitude.

"I was wrong. I know now that we must get to know each other to get along with each other," he said.

Jackie called for greater emphasis on the dignity of man, in reference to both racial and religious tolerance.

"Tremendous progress has been made, but we must continue to advance," he said.

"Must Not Fail"

"Millions of people all over the world are looking to this country for better understanding among all people and we must not fail. Our progress in this field is a strong weapon in the war against Communism."

Branch Rickey Jr., vice president and farm club director of the Pirates, told the group that he knew of "very few men—white or black—who could carry the abuse that Jackie took during his first two years in baseball."

Baseball Presentation Highlight Of Banquet

By DON BRYANT
Sports Editor, The Star

A packed house of some 350 baseball Oldtimers revived their heydays on the diamond and enjoyed the words of Jackie Robinson, Branch Rickey Jr., and Charles (Hungry) Simon Wednesday night at the annual banquet.

Robinson, the No. 1 speaker at the gala affair also figured in another important part of the program.

Dean Belknap, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Belknap and a young polio victim, expressed the desire to meet and hear Jackie and his wish was granted, much to the youngster's surprise.

In a press conference prior to the Oldtimers banquet, at which he was guest speaker, Robinson said he was "ready to hang up the glove" if Brooklyn traded him out of New York.

"I've made many contacts in the area and it would be foolish for me to pull up and leave for the one or two years I have left in baseball," Robinson said. He also said he wasn't interested in playing minor league ball, "not because I'm particularly opposed to it, but because there are other things better for myself and those persons in whom I'm interested."

Jackie Not Impressed By Giants

"I don't know where they get it unless they've been quoting (Leo) Durocher."

That's the way Jackie Robinson, Negro star of the Brooklyn Dodgers, parried a question about the validity of a story in The Sporting News that the New York Giants "are equipped to remain a National League power for years."

In a press conference prior to the Oldtimers banquet, at which he was guest speaker, Robinson said he was "ready to hang up the glove" if Brooklyn traded him out of New York.

Cork Means Pleasant Weather

If things suddenly become fresh and balmy around here and you find yourself thinking of nice-weather events like the state high school basketball tournament, drop a card of thanks to Lewis Kremke, the barbering gentleman of small Millard, Nebraska.

Because Lew — who really is called Cork and is rather famous as the father of good athletes — broke the cold wave today with a letter which immediately shattered the thermometer and made the 1955 tournament seem very close.

Cork was talking about the basketball situation around Millard and the near-Omaha area. He noted that the play in those parts seems under-par this winter except for the performances of that growing Springfield squad which is battering all opponents in its charge toward a state Class C championship.

Cork, a barber who must keep his shop alive with sports talk, commends Dennis Karloff of Millard as one of the bright names in that Eastern Nebraska area which is a province of small-school basketball artistry.

Karloff is a slim boy about 6-2 who almost pulled Millard into the state Class D throne last March after the Millard leader, Gary Reimer, fouled out against mighty Western and its big boys. He has been scoring well for the Indians this season and will be their big threat when the district meets start next month.

Cork is as familiar to the state tournament as is Pop Klein's crowded concession stand. Sit in the main stands and you will never see him because he prefers the Freshman court where the knowns and the unknowns from the cornfield

Plainsmen, Antelopes Go Tonight

Nebraska Wesleyan University and Kearney State College meet here tonight in a Nebraska College Conference contest to resume an old hardword rivalry which has existed since 1910.

The game, scheduled for 8 p.m. at 8:15 instead of the usual 7:30 tip-off hour, because of a Religious Emphasis Week service on the Wesleyan campus.

The game will pit a rapidly improving Antelope team against a Plainsman outfit seeking to retain the conference championship it has held for the past two years. The Plainsmen will go into the game with a 5-0 record against loop foes. The Antelopes have broken even in six contests.

After a slow start, the invaders have developed rapidly under the subtle coaching touch of Able Bill Morris. Last week the Antelopes handed Peru State a mighty defeat and then outlasted Midland College by 12 points in an overtime fracas.

Hansen A Factor

Freshman Jim Hansen, a 6 foot, 1 inch freshman from Kearney, has been the big factor in the new Antelope uprising. After being held to 27 points in four initial starts, Hansen scorched the nets with a 46 point outburst in two games last week.

But it will be left Darrel Lloyd the Plainsmen will need to watch the closest. The North Platte senior has resumed his high scoring antics this year and paces his mates with a 105 point total against loop foes. The Antelopes also have a dependable performer in bulky Doyle Fyfe, a 6-4, 220 pound senior center who is a capable rebounder and scores well in the clinches.

Coach Irv Peterson is expected to stick with the starting five which has carried his club to 10 victories in 13 starts this season although Jerry Kroeger, diminutive senior guard, may see but limited action. Kroeger sat out most of the Doane contest Saturday night because of an ankle sprain, but came off the bench to spark his mates to a 71-66 overtime victory.

The probable starters:

Wesleyan	Pos	Kearney
P. Fredstrom 6-4	F	6-3 1/2 J. Hansen
M. Shurey 6-0	F	6-2 1/2 C. Truett
F. McGuire 6-2	C	6-3 D. Fyfe
Jack Wood 6-1	G	6-0 D. Lloyd
J. Kroeger 6-10	G	6-10 R. Adams

Mel Vitosh, Odell, Rates Nod As 'Star'

By BILL FITZGERALD
Star Sports Staff Member

Odell High looks toward senior Mel Vitosh, a 5-10 forward, for the big points when the Tigers go on southern Nebraska basketball courts this season.

Last week the 165-pound veteran responded with two fine performances which were bright lights in two Odell defeats.

Vitosh, the Star's Star of the Week, scored 32 points against Holmesville and 21 points against DeWitt as Odell fell twice.

Among the other lights around the state gyms last week were:

Chuck Stacey, Weeping Water—He hit a jump shot with one minute left in an overtime to knock Eagle into a 35-31 defeat.
John Bennett, Pawnee City—His play was important in the Indian upset of Auburn.

Bob Moore, Clarkson—Moore continued to score well as his powerful squad crushed Stanton.

Duane Hennegeler, Stromberg—Twenty-three points by this big wrecked took Don Lange, Seward.

Don Lange, Seward—The Bluejays kept coming on as Lange scored 27 points in the triumph over Aurora.

Deane Curtin, Lincoln High—Strong boys Town could not stop Curtin, the last floorman, rebounder and scorer of the mighty Links. He scored 23 points and was rated the best player on the court.

Lytle Hansen, St. Paul—He dropped a free throw in an overtime to defeat Genoa, 61-60.

Low Shary, Waverly—One of the slickers in the eastern area, Shary broke Eagle with 26 points.

Mel Piotrowski, Loup City—The big boy was rated as the unbeaten Red Raiders' best player.

Duane Strandberg, Northeast—He scored eight points in the last quarter to pull the Rockets past slumbering Beatrice.

Dean Hallowell, Palmyra—His rebounding and scoring aided the Panthers in a victory over Douglas, an early contender of Palmyra.

Lytle Blum, Scribner—He scored 22 points in triumph at Midland.

Cecil Bator, St. Joseph's—At ways a point threat, Bator scored 19 against McCook Junction in victory.

Academic Progress Not Compromised

SCOTTSBLUFF (AP)—"At the University of Nebraska we don't compromise the student's academic progress for athletics," Bill Orwig, director of athletics, declared here Wednesday night.

Orwig addressed more than 350 persons at the first annual Athletics Booster Banquet.

Orwig went on to say that, although the academic progress toward a degree for the student is of top importance at the University "we feel the department of intercollegiate athletics is of equal importance with the department of music or chemistry or others."

Orwig said athletes are taught to exercise clean sportsmanship and to love and enjoy the game in which they participate. He expressed confidence in the future of athletics at the university but added:

"Blind criticism of a program such as ours can only speed its destruction. The mutual benefits of our athletic program far outweigh the defects in the program."

Hampton, Eagles Clash For Title

Lincoln Star Special

YORK—Hampton and Benedict pounced into the finals of the Crossroads Conference Tournament in high-scoring victories Wednesday night.

The two will meet for the title Thursday. Benedict defeated Henderson, 74-67, after trailing by two points at halftime.

Dave Saas lifted Benedict to victory with a 27-point performance although Don Peters of Henderson led all scorers with 30 points.

Hampton crushed St. Joseph's High of York, 71-45, with a balanced scoring attack featuring the 22 points of Larry Hansen.

Cecil Bator again led the Josies with 16 points.

1,086 Score Good For Top

Jo Landess and Jennie Lederman combined for a scratch 942 and zoomed to first place in the doubles of the women's city bowling tournament Wednesday night with a total of 1,086.

Their assault unseated the previous leaders, Jean Pappas and Helen Swenson, who fell to second with a 1076. Gertrude Wendelin and Dorothy Hansen continue to lead the double field with a scratch 955.

Ben Joyce and Associates were not threatened Wednesday as Good-year Women and Commonwealth Company were the only teams to crack into the top ten.

In singles, Helen Swenson continued to lead the women, but Jo Landess broke into the top ten with a 464-34—548 good for seventh place.

Blackman To Dartmouth Job

HANOVER, N.H. (AP)—Robert L. (Bob) Blackman was named head football coach at Dartmouth College Wednesday night shortly after resigning from a similar post at Denver University.

Blackman succeeds the veteran De Ormand (Tuss) McLaughry who quit after the 1954 season, in which the Indians lost six of their nine games.

Blackman's selection was announced by Athletic Director Robert A. (Red) Rolfe after a meeting of the nine-member Dartmouth athletic council which includes three alumni.

Doubles Has New Leaders In City Meet

Jim Plock and Harlan Honstedt bolted ahead of the doubles field in the men's city bowling tournament Wednesday night with the highest scratch performance of the tournament.

The duo bowled a 1145 good for a handicap score of 1214, eight pins higher than the 1204 of the previous leaders, John Kissler and P. Addleman.

Contracts Signed By Saddler, Davis

NEW YORK (AP)—Sandy Saddler, world featherweight champion, and Ted (Red Top) Davis of Hartford, Conn., officially signed contracts Wednesday for their 15-round title fight in Madison Square Garden on Feb. 25.

The pact provides that Saddler will receive 40 per cent of the receipts, including a similar cut of a $30,000 television fee.

Joe Giardello Tips Andrews

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Joe Giardello, clumsy and a bit slow, rallied in the last three rounds to score a decision Wednesday night over aggressive Al Andrews in a 10-round slugfest at Norfolk's Municipal Auditorium.

Giardello, the Philadelphia tough guy, weighed 162; Andrews, from Superior, Wis., was in at 159.

It was a very close fight through the seventh round, at which point The Associated Press card had the fight all even as Andrews' dodge-and-weave tactics confounded the ring-rusty Giardello.

But Joe came back strong at the finish, sending Andrews to the canvas with a short chopping right in the ninth. That one blow sewed up the victory for Giardello.

Judge John Burton scored it 96-95 for Giardello, Judge Charles Ford had it 97-93 for Joe, while Referee Paddy Mills surprised with a card favoring Giardello 97-92. The AP had it in Joe's favor 96-92.

Vyhnalek To Be Eligible

Lincoln Star Special

CRETE—The hopes of Doane College for a second semester comeback in Nebraska College Conference basketball were raised Wednesday when college officials announced that Don Vyhnalek, 6-2 transfer and former Crete High star, will be eligible for future games.

Vyhnalek, a regular as a freshman last season at Rio Grande, O., last week had been declared ineligible by Doane officials because of his failure to pass the required 12 academic hours.

Wednesday Basketball Coach Aubrey Givens, also the athletic director at Doane, announced that a clerical error has listed Vyhnalek's achievement for the semester as 11 hours instead of 12, the number he actually earned.

Givens stated that the noted forward carried 16 hours last semester and that he passed 12, failing one course. The fact of Vyhnalek's scholastic load of 16 hours was noted in the first semester report of Doane to the NCC secretary, said Givens.

Why Ancient Age can say:
"If you can find a better bourbon ... buy it!"

For many, many years we've believed so devoutly in straight Kentucky bourbon that we've distilled nothing but!

We comb sun-dappled fields for the choicest ripened grains. We use bright, clear Kentucky spring water. We wait patiently through the years while Ancient Age reaches rich maturity. We seal and bottle the incomparable result only at the distillery where it is born (essential for quality and uniformity). And whiskey experts have always agreed with us that there is no better bourbon, and that Ancient Age is a bargain at any price.

Now there is still another reason for Ancient Age's popularity. More than six years ago, we laid away extra stocks of Ancient Age. So today we actually lower the price of this truly matchless bourbon. Today this millionaire's whiskey can be enjoyed by everyone.

Taste Ancient Age and you'll see why we can say: "If you can find a better bourbon...buy it!" Reason? There is no better bourbon. And, at its new low price, this is the greatest value in history.

Army Of Mothers To Invade City

An army of marching mothers will invade Lincoln at 7 p.m. Thursday with an objective of helping wipe out the dread disease, polio.

Headed by Mrs. Eleanor Williams, 4,000 mothers will canvass every home in Lancaster County that shows a lighted porchlight, candle in the window or a handkerchief on the doorknob.

The women will be armed with credentials and a container to hold the donations to the March of Dimes.

The all-out drive will climax the 1955 March of Dimes.

Signalling the attack will be bells of Union College, St. Thomas Orphanage, St. Elizabeth Hospital, Blessed Sacrament, St. Paul Methodist, St. Mary's Cathedral plus music from the Mueller Carlton Tower, First Methodist and First Presbyterian Churches.

Organization of the city for the attack is "almost complete" according to Mrs. Williams. "We have a weak spot in the College View area and another in the Whittier area," she said, "and can use a few more volunteers to march. Anyone interested in helping is asked to contact Mrs. Richard Ioy at 4-4564."

Mrs. Williams has divided the city into school district areas with a colonel in charge of each area. Captains are in charge of each elementary school with lieutenants in charge of 10-block areas. Block mothers will do the actual canvass of homes.

"Actually," Mrs. Williams said, "we have 8,000 volunteers—if you want to count the 4,000 fathers who have 'volunteered' to baby sit while Mom is out marching."

In addition to the fathers, she said, civic groups are going to get into the act. The Exchange Club will act as a roving patrol to help collect donations from people who have been missed in the house to house canvass. And out at the Lincoln Air Force Base, she added, a Sergeant is going to be a "mother" for the evening.

The National Guard, under the leadership of Col. Evar Peterson, will patrol Lincoln streets and will be in contact with relay stations at Lincoln fire stations to help bring in contributions from people who have been missed.

Hearquarters for the evening drive will be the Cornhusker Hotel. Mrs. Williams added that for people who wish to contribute and whose contribution has not been picked up by 8 a call to 2-8891 will bring a car immediately. Lincoln firemen will relay the calls.

Crosby, Negro Athlete, 2 Women Cited For Human Relations Work

OMAHA (AP)—Former Gov. Robert Crosby, a Negro athlete and two Omaha women have been recognized by the Omaha Urban League for their activities in the field of human relations. A club also received an award.

Gov. Crosby was cited for "his pioneering courage" in setting up a state committee on human relations, and for appointing the first Negro to a high state post—Arthur McCaw, of Omaha, budget director.

Charles Bryant, University of Nebraska football player, was cited for his outstanding achievement the past year. He was an all-Big Seven football guard.

Mrs. Mary Foster Frederick, president of the Council for Equal Job Opportunities; and Mrs. Hazel S. McCormack, personnel manager at J. L. Brandeis Store, were cited for individual activities and the Modernettes, a Near North Side Women's group, received a citation for demonstrating the greatest concern for community welfare during 1954.

CHARLES G. SCHREITER

ELMWOOD—Funeral services were held at the Catholic Church here for Charles G. Schreiter, 73, of near Avoca. He died unexpectedly on the streets of Syracuse, N. Y., on Jan. 22. He was a retired farmer. Surviving are his wife, a daughter, Rose, of home; a son Leonard of Dunbar; a brother, a sister and three grandchildren.

2 Reds Will Leave U.S. If Freed

Will Go To Russia To Escape Terms

NEW YORK (AP)—Two of 12 jailed second string Communist leaders Wednesday offered to leave the United States if they are spared prison terms. They previously spurned an offer to send them to Russia.

They are Jacob Mindel, 74, Russian-born but a naturalized American since 1918, and Claudia Jones, 40, a British subject from the West Indies.

First Case

Asst. U. S. Atty. George Bailey said it was the first time he ever heard of an American citizen willing to leave his country to escape prison.

Mindel is serving two years and Miss Jones a year and a day. They began serving their time Jan. 11 after the U. S. Supreme Court refused to review their case.

At their sentencing two years ago, federal trial Judge Edward J. Dimock offered all 12 the opportunity to go to Russia and escape sentencing. At the time, they all declined.

Arguments Next Week

Arguments on the pair's unusual offer were scheduled for next Monday before Dimock. The maneuver suggested was that their sentences be reduced to time already served, and they then leave the country.

Attorney Mary M. Kaufman pleaded that both defendants have heart ailments and that continued imprisonment would endanger their lives.

She said of Mindel:

"He believes that he will not survive the unexpired term of imprisonment imposed upon him should his confinement continue. In view of this belief, defendant Mindel has informed me he is willing to depart from the United States to a country which will accept him."

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Before slamming the Dior on women's fashions we asked Lady Astor to flip a tiddly-wink into the saucer.

She said, "Dior's flat look is a Peeples Tom's version of a nudist colony seen through a picture fence."

'I walked down the expensive

“I walked down the expensive side of Fifth Avenue yesterday. I window-shopped all the latest styles. And I didn't notice the had melted down any of the war dummies.

"The flat look is not a wolf's idea of Dior prize, I aim to teach that man to keep a civil elbow in his sleeves. Anybody know that knees get as baggy as potato sacks."

Lady Astor is as correct as twice-two-is-four. She was one of the beautiful Langhorne's of

In those days a gal bulged in more places than an old barn in harvest time. But was fashionable along with the Kangaroo Walk and the picture hat.

Roaring Steels Rally Hikes Stock

NEW YORK (AP)—A roaring rally by the steels Wednesday sent the stock market shooting ahead. U.S. Steel started the whole thing. After the close Tuesday, directors of the company raised the dividend to $1 as compared with 75 cents previously paid quarterly and also proposed a two-for-one split.

Wall Street's surprise couldn't have been greater. Orders to buy poured in from all over the nation. The stock opened on 100,000 shares at 78 1/2, hit a high of 79 1/2, and closed at 79 1/2 up. The opening block was worth $7,800,000, one of the most valuable in market history.

Steers Hold Even; Pork Climbs 50c

OMAHA (AP)—Hog prices trended 25 to 50 cents lower on a liberal run at Omaha Wednesday. Early sales of fat lambs were 25 cents lower. Receipts of fed cattle lessened but a substantial carryover from early in the week was on sale. High quality fed steers were near steady with Tuesday's sharp decline.
